Care for Adult ADHD in Primary Care:
Updates and Focus Areas for Integrated Behavioral Health Clinicians

Date & Time: August 20, 2025, 1:30-2:30pm EST

Hosted by: UMass Chan Center for Integrated Primary Care

Presenter: Amber Cahill, PsyD

Overview: Adult ADHD is frequently encountered by PCPs and behavioral health clinicians in primary care. Behavioral health clinicians (BHC) are uniquely positioned to support accurate assessment, patient education, and tailored interventions. This webinar will focus on review of updates in the literature, common behavioral health interventions for ADHD, acknowledgment of frequent co-occurring conditions, and a discussion of common challenges faced by BHCs in primary care.

Audience: Behavioral health clinicians working in primary care settings, including LCSWs/LICSWs, LMHCs, LMFTs, and psychologists. Primary care clinicians are also welcome!
