

UMASS WORCESTER FAMILY MEDICINE RESIDENCY INTERN BIOGRAPHIES 2025-2026

Family Health Center of Worcester

Hiyam Ahmed, MD graduated in 2018 from University of Khartoum Faculty of Medicine in Sudan. She currently works as a community health worker at the Family Health Center of Worcester and has designed a patient education mobile app on non-hospital emergencies. Hiyam is fluent in Arabic and is passionate about providing community-based care here in Worcester. Her personal interests include hiking and cooking.

Alexis Corcoran, MD will graduate in 2025 from University of Cincinnati College of Medicine. Alexis earned a BA in Biology from Wellesley College in 2018. Prior to medical school, she worked as a research assistant in Boston in pulmonary and critical care. Her academic interests include environmental health and advocacy, and she is fluent in French. Alexis was a rugby club captain and currently enjoys running and indoor rock climbing.

Edwige Noumsi, MD will graduate in 2025 from Saba University School of Medicine. Edwige earned a Doctor of Pharmacy degree in 2007 from the MA College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences. She worked as a staff pharmacist for ten years before medical school. Edwige is a native of Cameroon, speaks French fluently and calls Danvers, MA home. Her academic interests include medication safety, holistic care and addiction medicine. Edwige also has a long-time passion for gardening.

Emike Okhipo, MD will graduate in 2025 from St. George's University. Emike earned her BS degree in 2018 from UMass-Dartmouth with a degree in Biochemistry and Political Science. Emike moved from Lagos, Nigeria to Milford, MA as a child and she is fluent in Yoruba. She taught high school chemistry prior to medical school and her academic interests include nutrition and behavioral health. Emike also enjoys yoga and cooking.

