

REGIONAL TUBERCULOSIS INFECTION ECHO

Moving Knowledge, Not People

Do you work in primary care and want to learn how to implement testing and treatment for TB infection or “latent” TB into your practice? ECHO sessions led by content area experts will cover topics crucial for the care of at-risk populations.

SESSION DATES FALL 2025

REGISTER HERE!

All Sessions are from:
12:15-1:15pm EST on Thursdays
First session: September 4th

September 25th
October 9th
October 23rd
November 13th
December 4th

Accreditation will be provided by the
ACCME for session attendance

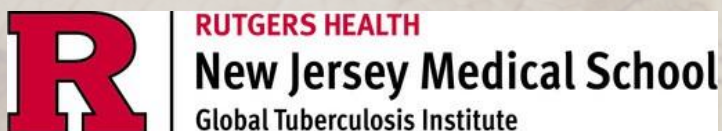

Curriculum Content:

- Background and assessing a patient's risk
- Testing options (TST vs. IGRA)
- TB infection treatment options
- Treatment monitoring and adverse effects
- Common challenges and solutions
- TB infection in children and in pregnancy

Scan QR code with a mobile device or visit this link for IECHO registration

For more information, reach out to: projectecho@brown.edu

THE WARREN ALPERT
Medical School
BROWN UNIVERSITY