We seek to know that supreme divine person.

We meditate upon the one with the curved trunk. (The curved trunk represents the base of consciousness as seen in the writing of the letter OM)

May that one who has one tooth inspire us.

(The one tooth represents the principle whereby dualities are merged into oneness)

Saumya / Taara – 21 times

Saumyaa Saumyataraa-Shesha
Saumyebhyas-Tvati-Sundaree;
Paraa paraanaam Paramaa

Taare tuttaare ture svaahaa

She is who is even more beautiful than all lunar, peaceful things, or entities combined in the entire universe, She who transcends even the transcendent forces as well as the eminent forces. Thou alone art the Supreme Lady, the Supreme Lordess.

Akhanda Mandala – 108 times

Akhanda-mandalaakaaram

(Which) pervades the entire unbroken form of the circle (of creation), moving and unmoving. To that beautiful and benevolent Guru through whom that state was revealed (to me), salutations.

Ganesha Gayatri - 21 times (again)

OM Tat-puruṣhāya vidmahe
Vakra-tuṇḍaya dhīmahi
Tanno dantī prachodayāt

We seek to know that supreme divine person.

We meditate upon the one with the curved trunk. (The curved trunk represents the base of consciousness as seen in the writing of the letter OM)

(The one tooth represents the principle whereby dualities are merged into oneness)

Pūrṇa-āhuti - 1 time

pūrṇam adaḥ pūrṇam idaṁ

Om! Śhāntiḥ! Śhāntiḥ! Śhāntiḥ!

Om that is full/complete/perfect. This is full/complete/perfect. Perfection arises from the Perfect. Taking the Perfect from the perfect, It remains as the Perfect alone.
Om! Peace! Peace! Peace!
