

1. Karlee and Amy implemented this model where both teachers engage in conversation, rather than lecture, to model meta-cognition strategies and encourage discussion among students. ANSWER: TEAM TEACHING

2. J'mel and Marie shrink the student- teacher ratio by splitting the classroom and teaching the same information simultaneously. ANSWER: PARALLEL TEACHING

3. Kate and Debbie use this model where one teacher instructs a large group and the other works with a small group to reinforce skills. ANSWER: ALTERNATIVE TEACHING

4. Molly and Erik have students circulate through various teaching centers, some taught by teachers and others completed independently. (and check out those Chrome Books!)
ANSWER: STATION TEACHING

