

A Work of Art at NPHS

Jamie Flynn, Art Teacher at NPHS, loves art and seeing students succeed when they create it. His inclusive classroom is a community where every student, regardless of ability, can access and grow their skills. Jamie wants every student to be challenged and do their best, so that each individual can look at what they have done and be proud of their own efforts. Students of all abilities, including those with physical impairments, autism, and other disabilities, are found in Jamie's classes. He states, "The great thing about art is that no artwork is ever the same." One of the most beautiful things Jamie has the opportunity to see is how we can all look at the same thing and everyone creates something different.
