

2019 Summer Programs

High school students interested in enrichment programs over summer break may be interested in the following:

- ASU Barrett Summer Scholars: BSS provides students with the opportunity to experience college while preparing for enrollment and success at Arizona State University and Barrett, the Honors College. The residential program invites academically-talented and motivated students entering the 8th, 9th, and 10th grade in fall 2019 to live on campus, engage in college-level coursework, and participate in a community of peers from across the state. For more information, contact Barrett Summer Scholars at BSS@asu.edu or 480-727-7786.
- Duke Summer Session for High School Students By attending one of our programs, you will prepare for college by delving deeper into intellectually stimulating courses of interest, which may even include the opportunity to accompany your college application with a letter of recommendation from a Duke instructor. In addition to challenging yourself academically, you will engage with a diverse group of peers, exposing you to different cultures and expanding your future network. Not to mention, you will leave with a lifetime of memories! Visit this website to learn more. Applications open now!
- Cornell Engineering Diversity Programs: Read the program overview and see if you qualify here: CURIE & CATALYST Program Overviews & Flyer

- Ringling College of Art + Design: PreCollege 2019 -- PreCollege is immersive, rigorous, and FUN. All students are enrolled in a full-time program of immersions in the majors as well as courses in art and design fundamentals. Expect to experiment, take risks, push yourself and make mistakes. You will strengthen your ability to think critically and creatively. Scholarships are available for this opportunity by entering the upNEXT Student Pitch Competition. For more details go to www.ringling.ed/upnext
- Rhodes College Summer Writing Institute for high school students. This June will be the 42nd session of the college-prep program with five writing courses ranging from a fiction workshop to a biology seminar. Our website includes information about tuition and aid, academic programming, and residential life. For more information, contact Rebecca Finlayson at finlayson@rhodes.edu.
