FROM PASTOR ERIC

I can't believe that we are already in the season of Lent and that my family has now lived in Albuquerque for a year. Time has flown by, and I am grateful for the many ways that God has blessed our time here. It being Lent, it feels like there are a million things flying around, so I'd like to highlight a few:

Mid-week services on Wednesdays, 12pm and 7pm. (Volunteers are needed to help assist in worship.)

Chili cook-off and talent show, hosted by the youth, 3/12, 5:30-7:30pm

Bunco Night, 3/19, 5:30pm

Spring Break (NO fellowship meal on 3/22), 3/20-3/24

I pray God continues to bless our community as we make our way through grief and mourning to Resurrection Sunday!

Peace,

Eric Robinson

STAY IN THE KNOW

We will soon be sending out an email through our new software program provider "Church360 Members" with an "automail" email address. This email is instructions on how to give us permission to send you text messages about important updates/announcements involving our church and school. Please follow the instructions on that email to opt-in to receiving text messages from us.

NEW YEAR—NEW CHALLENGES

Three years ago, we faced an enormous challenge – roof leaks requiring immediate, major repairs. Over the next few months, we contracted for the work, obtained a loan from the Lutheran Church Extension Fund, and began planning a fund raiser in the face of an expanding pandemic.

As always, the congregation met those challenges. Last September we concluded the two-year capital campaign. The past year brought us a new Pastor and our school continued its fantastic record of providing quality education to our youth. Offerings remained predictable and thanks to generous past members, their estates have made our endowment accounts healthier than they've been in many years.

Now 2023 – a new year with new challenges – some known, others unknown. To meet some of those challenges, historically we've looked at two financial sources to help – endowments and the "Building Fund." For the 2020-2022 Capital Campaign, we "kidnapped" this fund and renamed it the "Roof Fund." Last October, with its mission completed, the fund has reverted to its original purpose as the "Building Fund" to meet needs not fully covered by our normal budget process. An example, we need to replace over 20 air conditioning units over the next 8-10 years at a cost of $8-10,000 per year. Our budget only covers a portion of this need – the Building Fund hopefully can fund the balance. Many of us look for other areas of the Church budget to support above-and-beyond normal giving. Please consider the Building Fund if you're able.

Finally, thanks to the outstanding messaging from Pastor Robinson, the Commitment 2023 program will probably exceed the level of success we saw pre-pandemic. We encourage anyone who has not done so, please submit your 2023 pledge by March 5th.

THE TRUNK

I found it deep within my dad's closet. It was the closet underneath the stairs leading down to the basement. Behind boxes of Halloween and Christmas decorations, further back than the hanging clothes from decades ago, and suitcases covered in garbage bags to keep the dust off them. It was an old green trunk. I remember that it used to take up residence in my grandmother's basement. I have fond memories of exploring grandma's basement, which was full of vintage items from eons ago, just waiting for someone to discover them. I'm not certain if this trunk belonged to my grandmother, or to my great grandmother before her, but I do know it's been in our family for as long as I can remember. And so, I was excited to see what was inside, hoping to find photographs, or journals of my ancestors, keepsakes, or treasures of one kind or another. Make no mistake, someone had taken the time to put something inside that was dear to them. Something important that needed to be kept safe. Something of value whether that be financial, or sentimental, I wasn't sure, but whatever it was, it was important to someone, once upon a time...

And then...I opened it...

DON'T GIVE UP ANYTHING FOR LENT—ADD SOMETHING INSTEAD

No, I'm not really telling you to skip giving something up for Lent if you are so inclined. I understand sacrificing something during the Lenten Season is an outward response to Jesus' ultimate sacrifice for us.

I have seen some remarkable things happen to people as they have sacrificed and given up certain indulgences as we walk through the season of Lent in anticipation of Jesus' suffering, death and ultimately His resurrection giving us the promise of eternal life and forgiveness of our sins.

I am merely making the suggestion of adding something in response to His love and sacrifice for each of us. There are so many ways we can respond in a contemplative, and deliberate way to the love Jesus has shown for us. What better time to do it than during Lent.

We can by deliberately setting time each day in prayer. Quiet time set aside to just talk to God, listen to God and to open up to His will for us. Be intentional, in the morning, or the evening (or both), to pray on a daily basis.

Another possible add for Lent if you do not do so already, is to perhaps add a daily devotion or meditation. Open your mind and your heart and do so on a daily basis. Perhaps it has been a while since you spent quiet time in the word. I can't think of a better time than now, during Lent to add this to your daily routine.

Maybe this Lenten Season is a time that you can add attending our Wednesday worship if you do not do so already. Use the additional time of worship to honor God in response to His love for us and also to be fed through the worship, word, and teaching that you can receive during these mid-week worship services.

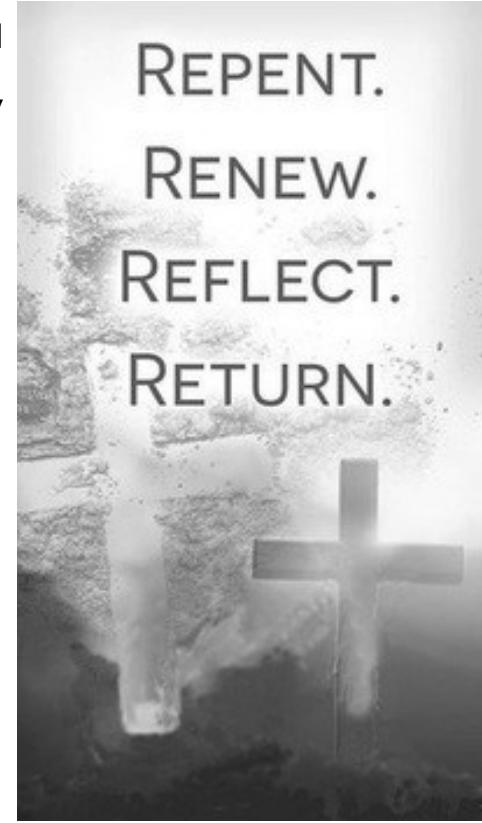

If not attending Sunday Bible classes perhaps add this to your Sunday mornings. I can promise you that you will come away fed and I am not talking about the donuts. Not only is it a time to learn, and dive into the word, but it is a great time to get to know your fellow brothers and sisters in Christ here in our family at Christ Lutheran Church and School.

If you are still looking for something to add during this time of Lent, look for a way you can serve during Lent in response to God's gift of grace and forgiveness. I know that God Cares About You is always looking for helpful hands. Ask German or Al how you can help. Go through your closets for nice unused clothes to give away.

Do something deliberate on your own. I know someone that started making sandwiches for the homeless, and out of those sandwiches became a full blown social ministry. You never know how God is going to use your responsive service.

Here is a fun idea as something to add during Lent. Invite a friend or neighbor to come to church with you. God may use this response you make to Him to enter into your friend or neighbor's heart. I cannot think of anything more joyous than this.

FROM STEPHEN MINISTRY

People often ask, "What exactly is a Stephen Minister?" One way to put it is that the Stephen Ministers are the After People.

Stephen Ministers are there:

... after the phone call you hoped you'd never get.

... after the funeral, when everyone has left and the emotions you've held at bay come crashing in on you.

... after the relationship falls apart and the bottom falls out of your life.

... after the doctor says, "I'm sorry, but there's nothing more we can do."

... after the nursing home director shakes your hand and says, "Welcome to your new home."

... after the last child honks the horn, waves, and drives away—and the house suddenly seems empty.

... after the gravel comes down, the handcuffs, go on, and your loved one is led away.

... after the baby arrives, demanding more of you than you ever dreamed possible.

... after you find a pink slip with your final paycheck.

... after your family and friends have heard your story one too many times, but you still need to talk it out.

Stephen Ministers are the After People. They are ready to come alongside you—or your friends, neighbors, coworkers, or relatives—and provide comfort and support for as long after as needed.

The overpowering smell of moth balls was the first thing I noticed. Then, as I began to look through what was inside, there were some handmade baby clothes, what looked like a baptism gown, and a blanket. Everything inside had been used, and all the cloth items were in disrepair, with aged yellow stains, tears, or holes. And as I moved all of it from the trunk to the trash bag, I couldn't help wondering if there were some Plague, or Typhoid germs stored along with the rest of the items. That's when it hit me. ¹⁹"Do not store up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moths and vermin destroy, and where thieves break in and steal. ²⁰But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moths and vermin do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. ²¹For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also." Matthew 6:19-21. All those precious 'things' we think are so important will fade. Let's keep our hearts in God's Word and store up those heavenly treasures that will never fade!

Together in Christ,

Kim Rasmussen

And what better time for someone to hear the message of God's saving grace and unconditional love than during the season of Lent.

These are just a few of the things that you may consider adding for Lent. Others may include special family time in meditation, study and discussion, personal evangelism, visitation, offering a listening ear.

Lent can be a time of sacrificially giving up things, but it can be a time of sacrificially adding things in response to the Love and sacrifice that Jesus has done for us. My Prayer is that this Lent is a time of contemplation, Prayer and growth for all of us.

God's Peace,

Jerry Shroff

NOTES FROM THE MUSIC DIRECTOR ~

Greetings of God's peace to you this March!

Our season of Lent continues through this month—a time when we cleanse our hearts through repentance and prayer, looking to the cross where Jesus our Savior died and carried all our sins for us. In His death, we have life! Through the power of the Holy Spirit in Word and Sacrament our faith is renewed and we rejoice in the fullness of grace that is ours as children of God.

The Bell Choir will be playing "My Faith Looks Up to Thee" for our services on Sunday, March 5.

The Choir will be singing "Behold the Lamb" for services on Sunday, March 12.

Looking ahead, please be sure to join us in person for Holy Week services which begin with Palm Sunday on April 2 and conclude with Easter on April 9 with special worship times on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday. What a beautiful, blessed time to be in God's house!

For some light entertainment, come see the School Choirs present a concert on Tuesday evening, March 7 at 7 p.m. in the sanctuary. They are working on a play called "Not Your Average Joe," which is the story of Joseph told in a little different way.

May this Lenten season be a blessing to you!

Worthy is the Lamb who was slain, to receive power and wealth, and wisdom and strength, and honor and glory and praise forever and ever! Amen!

~ Beth Shroff

MARCH NEWS!

Goodbye NFL! Thank you for this year's mediocre Super-Ad Sunday and the season's finale to fill the static between all those bland commercials; save, a few. For years, the Super Bowl meant I could give up my worldly passion for football during Lent, but now, temptation lurks! Did you know the XFL started and the resurgent USFL begins in April?! Hopefully, I haven't ruined anybody's plans for Lent. I apologize.

Coincidentally, the God Cares About You mission statement ends with, "...changing lives now and for eternity." I've mentioned before the importance of Mr Dawley's amendment, by adding, "It's not just the lives of the people we serve who are changed, but those who serve are changed, too." Unfortunately, I didn't have the pleasure of meeting Vic, but his words remain the essence of that closing clause.

"How are these two likened?" you may ask...

The relationships we are developing at the Mission are accompanied with challenging and fulfilling conversations. Talks that include the struggles of cold winter nights, broken pasts, stolen possessions, and the et ceteras of their lives. What is not overheard are chats of 'last week's game,' or the latest episodes of Whocares; understandably.

Addicted to television and one particular sport, vis-à-vis futbol americano, this past year has been a blessing because I, we, are not engaging in causal, How's the weather? chit-chat. Instead, our discussions surround Christ's Love and updates on their well-being. Not being exposed daily to newsy reporting or tv citing has helped me to by-pass the indulgences provided by streaming services and many football games. A true blessing.

This Lenten season I plan on giving up football, yet again! I plan on being grateful for the wonderful relationships I will develop at the Mission. Because of them, tv and sports seem to be less and less a priority in my life. I am grateful because the support and donations made to God Cares About You allow us to focus on loving our brothers and sisters in Christ and changes our lives, too. Thank you!

If you haven't been yet, I invite to stop and visit the Mission on Tuesdays at 1 p.m. or Thursdays at 2 p.m. We distribute groceries at these times and are blessed with the opportunity to say, "Here's a box of cereal. God Bless." This season, you never know what conversations might spring up.

We ask that you keep God Cares About You and ALL it's ministries in your prayers.

Thank you and God Bless!
