CHRIST CHRONICLE

APRIL | 2021

Dear friends,

I came across the following quote: "The more this country struggles to free itself from religion (Christianity), the more we become entangled in the consequences." Let me add: "The Christian Church needs to wake up! We all need to wake up! . . . we are fighting a battle! As long as we keep focusing on the wrong things, the battle will be lost."

I have spent a lot of time in reflection during the season of Lent. Though I am writing just before Palm Sunday, by the time you read this, we will most likely be in Holy Week or the season of Easter. It is easy to let go of the reflections of Lent in light of the resurrection of our Lord and the message of Hope it brings to our lives. However, we often fail to seek and make the changes needed in our lives which we discovered during the Lenten Season. Let me share my thoughts:

Most of humanity has continued, especially through recent years, to move away from God rather than toward God - culturally, socially, and even religiously. In our particular culture, attitudes and opinions have changed even within Christianity to the point that beliefs and lifestyles of Christians are barely distinguishable from those who are non-Christian.

This slow and subtle erosion has taken place because the focus of the Church and because the focus of Christians on God has become hazy and unclear. The distinction between the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of the world has been blurred and the fence between them has fallen into disrepair. Again, God is no longer the primary focus in the lives of Christians and Churches. Let me share with you a few examples from real life:

Parents primarily bring children to churches to be baptized, not because they desire a relationship with Jesus for their child, but because of family pressure, because of tradition, because it's "the right thing to do." And they do so with no intention of raising their child to be active in the Christian faith.

The same thing happens, and the same attitudes are reflected with Sunday School, Confirmation and the like — the primary motivation, once again, is not a desire that their child develop and nurture a relationship with Jesus Christ, but rather because "it's good for them — it's time for them to go through this."

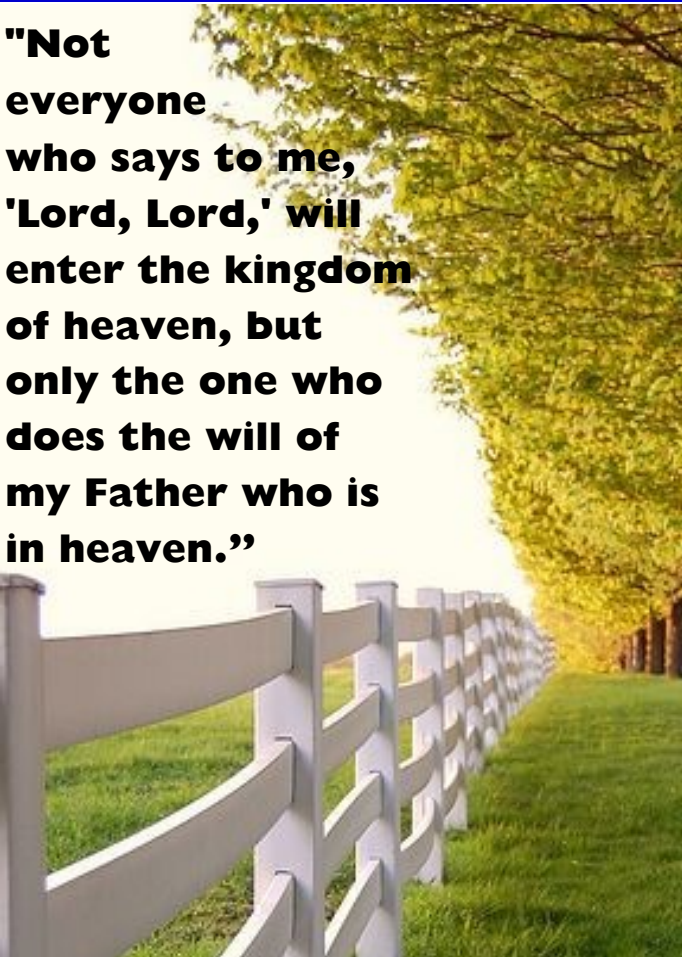

Young couples (and older ones) live together outside of marriage without viewing their actions as sinful — because everybody accepts it as normal — and the church, Christian parents, and Christian friends remain silent.

Television and entertainment (movies, music, etc.) in general have desensitized our moral standards and eroded our scriptural

"Not everyone who says to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one who does the will of my Father who is in heaven."

base for values and decision making. Look at the “acceptable” standards for sexual innuendos, content, and violent acts today as compared to 60 years ago.

A woman dates a man who is separated (but not divorced) from his wife (and vice-versa), and we fail to see it as adultery — justifying the behavior as okay because he’s getting a divorce anyway.

Christians view worship attendance as important, but not vital — if something more interesting, more appealing, or more “satisfying” replaces worship for a week or two — it’s okay, God will understand.

We live in a world of denial — people deny that there is anything wrong with their lives. They don’t sin, they just do wrong things once in a while. It’s okay, God still loves me, therefore I can live as I please, even if it’s not pleasing to Him. People deny the healing power of Jesus Christ and His forgiveness, because they do not see the illness that is slowly and insidiously destroying their souls. People deny that eternal salvation is more important than worldly happiness. People deny that God can make a difference in their lives because they are comfortable where they are. People really don’t want Jesus to make a difference in their lives because that means changing, and: “Why change when there’s nothing wrong with me and the way I am?”

The fence between the Kingdom of God and the Kingdom of the world has fallen into disrepair, because Christians have been straddling it with all of their weight for too many years. It is time for us to get off of the fence and to re-sharpen our focus on Christ-focused and Christ-centered living.

In 2 Chronicles 7:14, Solomon prays at the dedication of the temple: “If My people who are called by My name, will humble themselves and pray and seek My face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land.”

It is time for us as individuals, as families, as a congregation, as a nation, to face the truth of where we are truly at in our relationship with Jesus Christ. It is time to humble ourselves before God, submit to His Will, to Rededicate and Commit to Loving and Serving Him with our whole selves, our whole hearts, and our whole lives. It is time for us to quit straddling the fence and to decide in which kingdom we want to stand! Do we stand in the Kingdom of our Crucified and Risen Lord? Are we ready and willing to seek and follow His Will?

Our world, our culture, our nation, our society need the hope that Easter brings. In order to bring that hope we, as Christians, need to learn to stand in the right place. Are you ready to stand?

I am reminded of the words of Joshua: “Choose this day whom you will serve – but as for me and my house – We Will Serve The Lord!” We will continue to preach, teach, live, and share Christ Crucified and Risen! Prepare for Ascension Day (being sent). Prepare for Pentecost (being filled with the Holy Spirit) Prepare to join God where He calls us to live and serve!

In Christ,
Pastor Neal Groeling

Spring into Service!!!

Easter is such a time of renewal! As we reflect on Jesus, how He came to serve, died on the cross on Good Friday and rose again on Easter which took away our sins and gave us God's promises, we are called into service as His people.

We reflect on this Good News throughout our spiritual journey, but it is so wonderful and refreshing to reflect on it during our season of Lent, Holy Week, and Easter. For me, it is also a great reminder for our call into service as we can after the sacrifice and service Jesus did for us.

With that, we have a great opportunity set before us to get a fresh start in our service in so many ways! Spring has arrived and after over a year of various shutdowns things are beginning to open back up.

We will begin to open some of the things back up within our own community of faith. Soon, it is our prayer, that our Sunday morning Bible Studies will again be in-person. Some of the restrictions that have been put on our boards will ease up. Prayerfully our Fellowship Meals will begin again by summer.

Activities at God Cares About You will expand. Hopefully soon, our ropes in the pews can go into closet space. Our opportunities to serve will abound around us. If you have not been involved in the past in areas of service this is a great time to join in.

We will be renewing our Boards this Summer. There are great opportunities for service especially with human care, fellowship, youth, properties, education, and mission.

There are opportunities to serve in our worship that will be ramping back up including music, lectors (readers), sound, ushering, acolytes, alter guild, and more. There are numerous opportunities to serve with our International District mission and God Cares About You.

There are also many opportunities to serve just by being present in our community of Faith. What do I mean by that? I believe we have great opportunities to serve each other and by doing so we are serving God.

It means to call and check up on each other. It means to encourage each other; to support each other. This pandemic has had a huge impact on all of our lives. It has impacted some harder than others.

Alleluia! Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!

April brings the Three Holy Days, or Holy Triduum. April 1 is Maundy Thursday, April 2 is Good Friday, and April 4 is Easter Sunday. We hold worship on all three days and desire to have you join us in person, or online.

Maundy Thursday we go to the Upper Room where Jesus instituted the Lord's Supper. How wonderful to know we are welcome at the Lord's Table each Sunday, and look forward to the heavenly banquet some day in His kingdom!

Good Friday we go to Golgotha where Jesus was hung on a cross for all our sins. We use a Tenebrae service, extinguishing candles until complete darkness overtakes the sanctuary, as darkness overtook the earth when Jesus died in the middle of the afternoon.

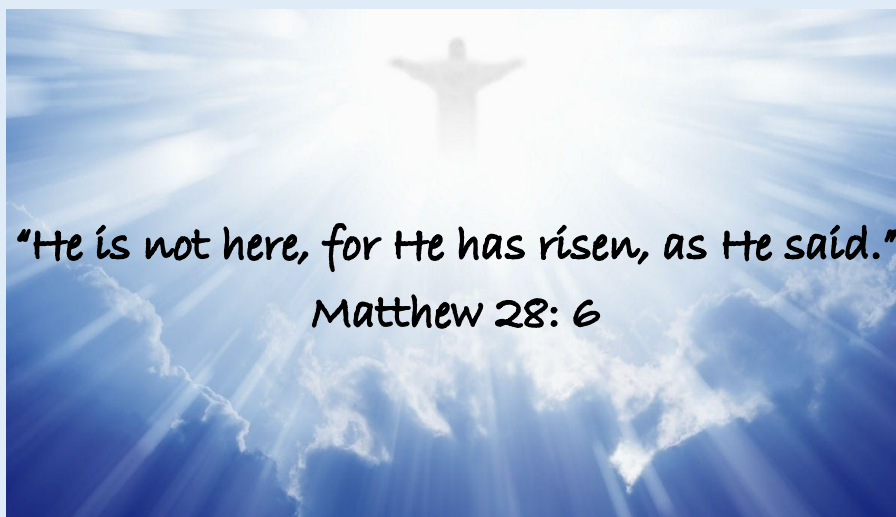

Easter morning arrives. The tomb is empty and "Alleluia" again rings throughout the church. Alleluia comes naturally and easily to our tongues, for the Lord who went down into death has conquered. The victory is won! New life is ours through Jesus!

Forty days of Lent have gone by quickly. Maybe it is because I am writing this when we are only about halfway through. What about the fact that a whole year has gone by since this Covid-19 outbreak? I couldn't remember whether or not our choir had begun work on an Easter cantata last year before we stopped rehearsals, but looking back at last year's Chronicle article, it says we had. What a strange year to have not had the choir or bells going on! Get your vaccines, and maybe we can start up again!

The month of April continues with blessed Sundays of Easter, praising and thanking God for His gifts of love, forgiveness, life, and salvation through His Son! Our actions need to express to the world all that He means to us! He loves everyone and came to save everyone! He commands us to share that Gospel message with everyone!

*Let us sing praise to Him with endless joy;
Death's fearful sting He has come to destroy.
Our sin forgiving, alleluia!
Jesus is living, alleluia!

~Beth Shroff

From the Principal

Wow, some amazing things are happening. We are heading in the right direction, the direction of normal. We still have a long way to go, but with the warm weather, and Spring on the way, I can't help but be optimistic!

I was reading an article by Tim Elmore about how to actually put empathy to work. I know many are struggling mentally and emotionally from being isolated for so long, and in general from a heightened anxiety about what is happening in the world around us. In the article, Tim mentions that many people experience a phenomenon called "psychic numbing." Because we have too little time, too much exposure to needs, and become overwhelmed, we often don't act to help others. Studies found that if one person needed help, and another person was alone, they tended to help, whereas, if there were many people who needed help, or if there were many people around who could help, no one helped. Three secrets for putting empathy to work are to put a single face to a problem, act immediately to help, and imagine you're the only one who can do anything. It's a matter of learning how to take action, even if we feel insignificant. Even though we may feel insignificant, we are not. We have been called by the One True God, who has planned good works for us to do in advance, and equipped us to do them!

In Christ,

Kimberly Rasmussen

Many have been in isolation for the last year for a variety of reasons. For some, transitioning back out of isolation may be as difficult as it was for many to transition into it at the beginning of the pandemic.

We can be here for each other. Simple phone calls, short encouraging notes, even a text or email sharing God's love to one another will go wonders right now. In these ways we are able to serve and be of service to God. It is a great place to start.

Yes, now is a time to get out of our comfort zones and to serve. To not only say love our neighbors as ourselves, but to actually show and give our love to our neighbors. Do not just reach across the pew but reach out to that person that sat across the pew from you a year ago and let them know you love them and miss them.

What a wonderful opportunity we have before us to serve.

God's Peace,

Jerry

Mission Board of Directors

I hope you and your loved ones are safe and healthy.

As our staff and volunteers have developed strong practices to help keep the Mission Community healthy and safe, and to maximize in-person activities, such as Bible studies, back to work program, children's food bags, Breakfasts and Lunch meals and the monthly grocery give away. We have continued these on a consistent basis.

I want to make sure you are aware of some important opportunities coming up over the next few weeks.

First I'm beyond thrilled that we will provide our Annual Good Friday walk with Lunch.

2nd I am encouraging everyone to support our Annual Plant Sale in May. Join us in this fundraiser. You will be hearing much more over the next several weeks.

I realize we're all experiencing Pandemic fatigue, but when I see what we have accomplished. I am grateful to each and every one of you.

Thank you for being part of the GCAY FAMILY.

2021 LWML Convention

Date: June 24–27, 2021

Location: Lexington, Kentucky

Theme: Running the Race ... Looking to Jesus

Scripture Verse: Therefore, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us also lay aside every weight, and sin which clings so closely, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God (Hebrews 12:1-2).

President: Debbie Larson

Goal Statement: Looking to Jesus, we run the race set before us and proclaim the joy of the Lord.

Objectives: Convention attendees will:

- Focus on Jesus through God's Word and Sacrament.
- Joyfully celebrate our salvation with song and prayer.
- Serve our neighbors through witness and mission.

This event will be in person ~ you can register on-line

Showing that you care

For though I am absent in body, yet I am with you in spirit, and I rejoice to see your morale and the firmness of your faith in Christ. Colossians 2:5

The apostle Paul had a lot of people for whom he cared. He had started many churches, and he came to care deeply for the new Christians. Sometimes he even referred to them as his children in the Lord. The people he cared about were always on his mind.

You may find that those who you care about are on your mind much more often with the COVID-19 pandemic in the back of your mind. You will pray for them and think about all that they need from God. God has enriched your life with people whom you care for.

What do you think Paul would have given for a cell phone? "Hello Timothy. I have been thinking about the Corinthians. Tell me how they are doing. Well, you tell them that I said there is only one leader, and that is Jesus, and the rest of us are just his servants. Stay strong in the Lord. Okay, bye".

Thank God we have telephones to use as caring tools. While the telephone can sometimes seem like a tyrant, demanding your attention during mealtimes or important conversations, it is also a gift from God to enhance the ability to care. Our Stephen Ministers have been trained so that when schedules don't match with their care receivers, or even when there is a pandemic, they can still provide care via telephone to those who are going through difficult times. They provide telecare.

You can do this too. Use your telephone to call and care for those in your life, if restrictions don't let you visit. Think about those in our congregation who you haven't seen in weeks, and give them a caring call. Share God's love with them by listening to them, talking to them, and praying with them. Show them, like Paul, you are with them in spirit and care for them as a part of our family in the Lord. Build them up, and you too will say, I rejoice to see your morale and the firmness of your faith in Christ.

AVERAGE WEEKLY OFFERINGS (August 2020—February 2021)
$9,963

AVERAGE WEEKLY OFFERINGS (Same time frame last year)
$10,206

Members and friends of Christ Lutheran Church & School;

With five months remaining in this fiscal year, we remain on track to match last fiscal year's offerings – only slightly behind at this juncture. Under a full period of COVID restrictions, we have to be pleased. We've taken significant hits from loss of income from extended care and preschool. Government programs have helped, but we're still under pressure to meet overall financial needs through the remainder of the year. Your consistent, generous support is certainly appreciated.

And I'd like to thank all who participated in "Commitment 2021." Although the era of COVID-19 definitely impacted our effort this year, your participation provides valuable input for our budget planning efforts.

At the conclusion of our first quarter of our 2020-2022 Capital Campaign, I'll be mailing an update to all on our progress in early April. Again, we're very encouraged with our progress. We continue to draw strength from the past year's challenges and prayerfully move on to successfully support the missions of Christ Lutheran Church and School.

God's Blessings,

Tom Hebblewhite, Board of Stewardship

Flower Dedication

Don't forget you can still sign up for a flower dedication for any Sunday of this year. The flowers cost $26.00 and you can take them home after Sunday services. You can sign up on the flower chart that is in the Narthex before or after Sunday services or you can call the church office.

New Worship Schedule

Most of you know already but there is a new worship scheduling system. Those that are assisting in worship on Sundays such as Lectors, Lay Ministers, and Acolytes, etc. will be receiving an email at the beginning of each month that provides an online sign up schedule for the following month. This allows those that participate to choose what Sunday works best for their schedule. If you have not received an email, would like to be included in assisting at worship, or have additional questions please contact Janine at the church office. Thank you for serving the church!

Christ Lutheran School Enrollment is open to the public for the 2021 fall year. Spread the word and tell your friends and family about our great school!

Thank you all for the generous abundance of egg cartons given to the God Cares About You missions! They are no longer in need of any at this time. Your donations are greatly appreciated!

For behold, the winter is past; the rain is over and gone. The flowers appear on the earth, the time of singing has come, and the voice of the turtledove is heard in our land.
Song of Solomon 2:11-12
