

TABLE Magazine presents the fifth-annual Western PA Lamb Fest at Southside Works on Sunday, October 23th, 2022 1pm-5:30pm.

Farm to Table Buy Local is proud to sponsor the fifth-annual Western PA Lamb Fest! We will be hosting a Farmers' Market as part of the event and we'd love for you to join us! Please complete the form below and return by October 1st.

About the Event

Renowned worldwide for producing America's best lamb, Western Pennsylvania is also on the map for some of the most remarkable new chef talent in the county. The event is slated to be an all-star cook-off, with 11 collaborative chef teams from over 25 of Pittsburgh's most prominent restaurants. This year's "Lamb Fest" will sizzle in the Southside Works on Sidney Street and the newly renovated "Town Square." Join us for an unforgettable, unmatched culinary experience!

The festival will be held mainly outdoors where we will cook up tastings and serve beverages against a backdrop of natural and manmade beauty. Parking will be plentiful. Tents and seating will be, too. Our 1,000+ guests and our chef teams will have an open air, easy, convenient experience – and that will free up each of us to enjoy memorable lamb dishes, impressive cocktails, tasty brews, and much more.

The cost to participate is $200. Please complete the following information and return to Carla Clipper by October 1, 2022.
