

Discipline Committee

Job Description: The responsibility of the Discipline Committee is to act on the recommendations of the Consultation Committee. It will consist of twelve persons, of whom half shall be ordained ministeres and half shall be lay persons, who shall be elected by the Synod Assembly. This position is a voluntary one and will meet on an “as needed” basis. Each person must be a voting member of an ELCA congregation.

Qualifications: Persons serving on the Discipline Committee must have an ability to process input from many persons in reachign a consensus of opinion. Persons must be able to share openly in discussions of very sensitive matters. Persons serving on the Discipline Committee must know the policy and mission of the church. They must be compassionate with a commitment to fairness and justice.