

Want to help with the "Con Te Partiro" project?
This what we need from now through December, 2017!
Contact Dr. Richard Buckner at richardbuckner@utexas.edu

- Receive checks supporting project
- Disburse funds in lump sums for legitimate expenses and contributions to San Bernardino victims and victims' families
- Help with networking - introductions to producers, possible donors, grantors, and others that can join the consortium
- Help with production
 - Help locate a medium sized theatre available for 1-6 performances by December 2017
 - Help write a budget for the full performance(s)
 - Help finance the theatre rental
 - Help pay actors
 - Help finance crewing
 - Help finance ticketing
 - Help finance program printing
 - Help locate actors
 - Help locate or volunteer as the following: assistant director, stage manager, house manager, sound technician, lighting technician, line set operator, set change crew, narrator, ushers
- Locate or volunteers as grief counselors, if needed, at performances
- Provide mentoring, emotional support, and encouragement to producers

The professional Table Reading(s), rentals and actors' fees are being paid for by Dr. Richard and Elizabeth Buckner.

Those interested are invited to attend the December 10 Professional Table reading (free) at 2:30 p.m. at the West Hollywood Community Center at Plummer Park. Any and all help will be very much appreciated.

Richard Buckner, Ph.D
richardbuckner@utexas.edu