

THE SKATING CLUB OF NEW YORK SILENT AUCTION MARCH 4, 2023

The mission of The Skating Club of New York (SCNY) is to provide programs to encourage participation and achievement in the sport of figure skating; to conduct figure skating tests as defined by United States Figure Skating; and, to organize and sponsor competitions, exhibitions and clinics. The SCNY is an all-volunteer, 501(c)(3) charitable corporation and all contributions are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. Each prize was donated, so 100% of the proceeds, net of any credit card commissions, will help finance SCNY member activities, including US Figure Skating test sessions, club ice sessions, skating scholarships, and competitions. The SCNY is grateful for your generosity.

Silent Auction
Bid Form
Wollman Open
March 4, 2023

Please print clearly:

Name: _____

Home Address: _____

Cell Phone: _____

Email address: _____

Title of Auction Item:

Amount Bid for Item (must be equal to or greater than the minimum amount to bid):

$ _____

Signature (must be over 18)

Please place this sheet in an envelope and place envelope in the container for item on which you are bidding or email mail@thescny.org by 2:00p.m. on Saturday, March 4th with your auction bid. You will be contacted only if you are the winning bidder. You must be prepared to give a valid MasterCard, Visa, or American Express account number. You will be charged the amount of your bid, together with a transaction fee. Your signature certifies that you have read the auction rules.

SCNY SILENT AUCTION

March 4, 2023

The following conditions apply to all auction items:

All bidders must be age eighteen (18) and over.

Winners will be notified by telephone call, email or text beginning on Saturday, March 4, 2023 after the auction closes. At that time, the winner must be prepared to give a valid credit card number and authorization to claim your prize. SCNY accepts MasterCard, Visa and American Express only. If you fail to provide a valid credit card number, the prize will be awarded to the next-highest bidder.

The amount charged for the item will be the winning bid, plus a service charge for the credit card transaction.

Depending on the size of the prize, items will either be mailed to winner or winner must arrange to retrieve any item from SCNY by special arrangement. Appropriate identification may be required.

The use of some items is subject to the mutual convenience of both the donor and the successful bidder. SCNY is not responsible if a bidder is unable to come to an agreement with the donor.

Some items are restricted as to when they may be used. Other items may have expiration dates. SCNY is not responsible if a bidder is unable to use an item due to any restriction or expiration.

SCNY does not warrant any estimated value for either tax purposes or to establish an item's fair market value.

The price paid for an item is qualified as a tax deductible gift only to the extent the price is shown to exceed the fair market value of any consideration received in the form of privileges or other benefits.

SCNY is not liable for any occurrence resulting from the use of auctioned goods and services.

The winning bidder is responsible for any property damage or personal injury or other misuses that occur to any property donated to this auction. Donors are not liable in any way for any injury to any person or for any property damage.

All bidding will be made through a silent, sealed bid, on the bid form or by sending a bid to mail@thescny.org by 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, March 4, 2023. The minimum bid is set forth for each item; your bid must be at least equal to or greater than the minimum bid. The sealed bids will not be opened until the auction closes, at approximately 5:00p.m. on Saturday, March 4. To place your bid, complete the bid form, with your name, cell phone number and email address (without this your bid will not be considered). This will serve as your sealed bid, which will be placed in an envelope, labeled with the title of the auction item, and placed in the container for each item. If there are two identical sealed bids, the bidders will be contacted to make a best and final bid. Bidders are encouraged to attempt to prevent this possibility by bidding in odd amounts (e.g., $579).
