

2020 MEMBER SURVEY RESULTS

EMPLOYED BY

PRIMARY ROLES

---

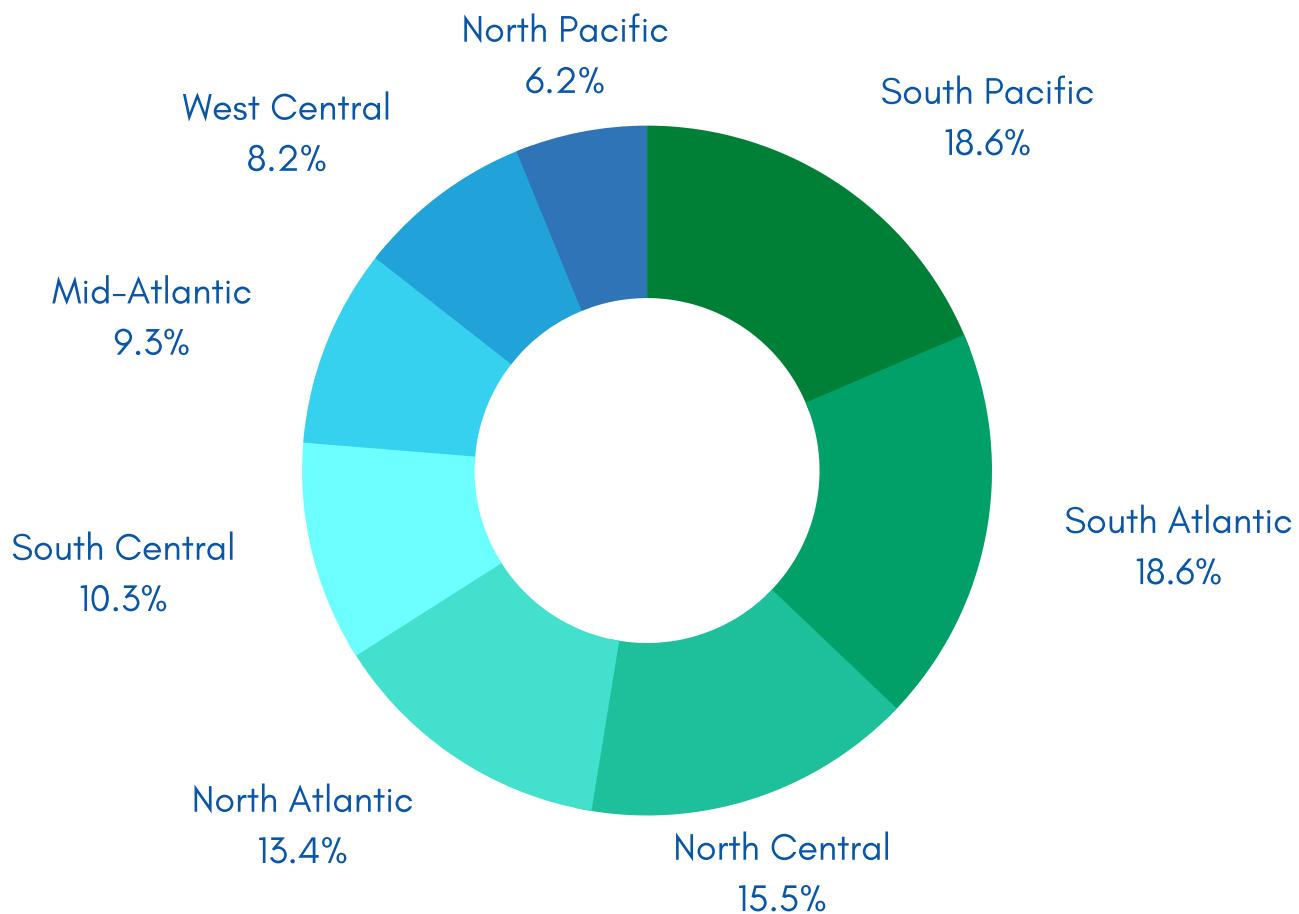

- Director/Leadership
- Research/Scientist
- Administration
- Professor
- Field or Lab Technician

Over half of our members have a master's degree or higher, 30% have PhDs.

WHO ARE AMCA MEMBERS?

MEMBERS ARE DISTRIBUTED ACROSS THE COUNTRY

Survey shows 51% of respondents work in additional vectors beyond mosquitoes.

Ticks were reported as the top vector at 30%
Following top vectors respondents work in are rats, black flies, and fleas

The median member has worked in the field for 15 years.

MOST SIGNIFICANT IMPACT ON THE MOSQUITO CONTROL INDUSTRY:

---

- Lack of public understanding/support of mosquito control
- New and re-emerging vector-borne diseases
- Mosquito resistance to pesticide

Half of the top ten significant impact issues are related to communication and advocacy issues.

MOST CRITICAL PRIORITIES IN YOUR WORK:

---

- Increase and improve public outreach
- Improve my leadership, management, and administrative skills
  - Over three-fourths (76%) of respondents under age 35 want to improve their leadership, management, and administration skills.
- Implement innovative tools and techniques

TOP FIVE AMCA MEMBER BENEFITS:

Networking with other members for scientific exchange

Access to the JAMCA

Information on the AMCA website

Access to archives of the JAMCA

Educational webinars

AMCA stands out as the go-to organization for National/international industry news and Legislative and regulatory advocacy.

Additionally, AMCA provides key opportunities for networking and connecting with peers, professional development, and opportunities for industry visibility and leadership.