

PRINCIPAL PROFILE

The Edna Rowe advantage

We empower students to become lifelong learners and responsible citizens.

PRIORITIES FOR SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

Top 3 Areas of Focus
SURVEY QUESTION: Based on the research of Edmond, Marzano, and Bambrick, the following are characteristics of effective schools. Please consider where you feel the new principal should prioritize her/his focus in order to help Edna Rowe move to the next level of growth and achievement.	% of Edna Rowe teachers & staff who chose each characteristic in their top 3
Positive communication: school, home, community The effective school builds trust and communication within the school, parents, and community. Forming partnerships with the parents and community enables all stakeholders to support the mission of the school and have the same goals and expectations.	44%
Maximizing learning opportunities Effective instruction time must focus on skills and curriculum content that are considered essential, that are assessed, and most valued. There should be abandonment of less important content.	37%
Staff Culture Great staff culture comes from consistent actions that are aligned to the school's mission. Leaders seek input from stakeholders and build systems of cohesive stakeholders.	31%

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE SCHOOL LEADER

Top 5 Principal Characteristics
SURVEY QUESTION: What are the five most important characteristics you would like the next principal to possess?	Number of Edna Rowe teachers & staff who chose:			TOTAL Edna Rowe teachers & staff who chose each characteristic in their top 5
	Most Important	Second	Third
Staff Culture Seeks input from stakeholders and builds systems of cohesive stakeholders.	7	3	2	12
Observation and Feedback Organizes to support teachers in improving teaching and learning.	3	3	2	8
Student Culture Develops a positive culture, constant message that nothing is as important as learning.	4	3	1	8
Safe and Orderly Environment Campus is safe and operates with clear rules and procedures.	4	1	3	8
Positive Communication School, Home, and Community: builds trust and communication	5	3	0	8