

PRINCIPAL PROFILE

The Mockingbird advantage

We are proud to reinforce academic excellence through a rigorous curriculum and differentiated instruction designed to meet the needs of 21st-century students.

PRIORITIES FOR SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

Top 3 Areas of Focus
SURVEY QUESTION: Based on the research of Edmond, Marzano, and Bambrick, the following are characteristics of effective schools. Please consider where you feel the new principal should prioritize her/his focus in order to help Mockingbird move to the next level of growth and achievement.	% of Mockingbird teachers & staff who chose each characteristic in their top 3
Staff Culture	67%
Positive Communication	54%
Safe and Positive Environment	28%

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE SCHOOL LEADER

Top 5 Principal Characteristics
SURVEY QUESTION: What are the five most important characteristics you would like the next principal to possess?	Number of Mockingbird teachers & staff who chose:			TOTAL
	Most Important	Second	Third	Mockingbird teachers & staff who chose each characteristic in their top 5
Staff Culture: Seeks input from stakeholders and builds systems of cohesive stakeholders.	14	11	3	28
Positive Communication School, Home, and Community: Builds trust and communication	15	5	1	21
Student Culture: Develops positive culture, a constant message that nothing is as important as learning.	7	10	2	19
High Expectations for ALL Students: expects that all students can attain mastery	4	4	3	11
Parent and Community Involvement: Promotes several opportunities for involvement.	3	5	2	10