

IVYP STAFF READING LIST

What are you reading that has brought you joy during quarantine?

Lori Goodman, Executive Director

I have been re-reading all of Rick Riordan's series best known for the Percy Jackson series. I'm brushing up on my Greek, Roman, and Egyptian mythology. I also just read The Tenth Muse for book club. Next on my book club list is Beloved, by Toni Morrison. I also plan to start reading White Fragility and How to Be an anti-Racist.

Franky Viveros, Children's Center Director

Mamba Mentality by Kobe Bryant

Laura Costilla, Family Engagement Specialist

I just began reading the Four Agreements by Don Miguel Ruiz, passed up by my little brother

Diana Rosales, Executive Assistant

"Men are from Mars, Women are from Venus" by John Gray, "The Gifts of Imperfection" by Brené Brown, and "The Five Love Languages" by Gary Chapman. Now I'm reading "Adultery" by Paulo Coelho

Elizabeth Padilla, IVYP Children's Center West Campus

Article, "Understanding Implicit Bias" by Cheryl Staats

Elizabeth Hahn, Director of Development

I'm half way through "Ruth Bader Ginsberg, A Life" by Jane Sherron De Hart. Next up is "Say Nothing" by Patrick Radden Keefe.
