

Clouse Construction Named High Performance Builder, Central Region

Pictured left to right - Greg Pasley, Butler Manufacturing President; Bruce Shook, Clouse Construction Project Manager; Adam Wines, Clouse Construction Project Manager; Brian Clouse, Clouse Construction Vice President & Project Manager; Lenny Clouse, Clouse Construction President; Terry Shank, Clouse Construction Project Manager; and Steven Hudgins, Butler Manufacturing Vice President of Sales

Clouse Construction Corp. was recently recognized as a High Performance Builder by Butler Manufacturing™. Butler provides design-build construction solutions and innovative building technology to the nonresidential market. This designation is awarded to Butler Builder® dealers who meet or exceed annual territory sales goals and demonstrate superior marketing skills in selling Butler® buildings.

Founded in 1975, Clouse Construction Corp. has been an authorized Butler Builder for 39 years. Current and recent Clouse Construction projects in the Tiffin area include: Arnold Machine, Owens Corning, Taiho Corp., Webster Manufacturing, American Fine Sinter, Tiffin Aire, Baumann Auto Group, Tiffin University Heminger Center, North Central Ohio Educational Service Center, Laminate Technologies, Coppus Motors, Sunrise Co-Op, Good Shepherd Nursing Home, and a 50,000 sq. foot Spec Building.