

Recalibrating Your Leadership Compass

A guide for increasing leadership clarity and influence

60 & 90-minute Webinar Delivery Options

Overview:

Never before has leadership clarity and influence been so critical to so many. In these rapidly changing times, they are essential factors in mobilizing and motivating teams everywhere. Despite the progress many leaders have made since the onset of the pandemic, most leaders would agree that this period of great uncertainty demands true leadership at its highest level. It also requires us to create a “new normal” context that inspires hope among those we lead. In order for leaders to fully align their capacity with the evolving tides of leadership, they must first examine their own leadership formula and its impact on team morale.

This highly interactive webinar is designed to provide leaders with a deeper understanding of their influence as well as the impact that the new virtual workplace has on teams. Participants can expect to leave the webinar with new tools that can be applied immediately to expand their leadership influence and impact.

Core Contents:

- Exploring Our New Reality
- Rethinking, Positive Thinking
- The Five Dimensions of Leadership Influence
- Building Values Clarity & Congruence
- The Impact of WFH
- Leadership Strategies That Work
- Recalibrating Your Leadership Compass

Learning Objectives:

- Create a leadership opportunity context
- Examine the critical need to inspire hope
- Explore the full range of influence with emphasis on leadership trust
- Build clarity around leadership values and their link to congruence
- Expand awareness of the impact that work-from-home has on teams
- Identify and explore meaningful leadership response options
- Rethink and reframe your leadership formula to ensure alignment with the “new normal”