Parking:

Parking is available at nearby pay-to-park lots, most of which accept credit cards. Please note that if you plan to drive the day-of it is recommended that you add additional travel time to your commute as traffic through Los Angeles can be unpredictable. See map below for recommended lots near the hearing.

Alternative transportation:

The Metrolink's San Bernardino Line will take you to Union Station which would leave just over a half mile walk to the CalTrans building. From Union Station, you can also catch the DASH D bus which will stops one block from the building.

Nearby Lodging:

Due to the 9am start time, it is recommended an overnight stay in Los Angeles the night before the hearing. The Double Tree by Hilton Hotel Los Angeles Downtown is across the street from the hearing location and rooms are currently still available for the night of June 15. You can book your stay by visiting <https://www.hilton.com/en/hotels/laxdtd-doubletree-los-angeles-downtown/>.
