

ADULT EDUCATION

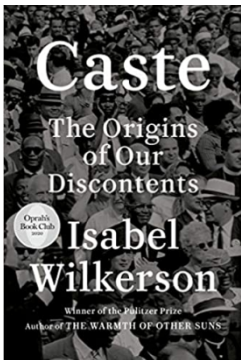

We started the spring season off with a variety of interesting classes on a range of topics. Leslie Dolan taught a class on making a tallit and Linda Finkelstein taught a class on the artist Mark Rothko. Rabbi Amy continues her iEngage Hartman Institute class about Israel and its relationships. (Contact her to join the class).

Rabbi Amy, Rabbi Edelson of Temple Sinai and Cantor Steve held the first few sessions of the “Making Prayer Real” course which will continue every other week for the next 18 months. The course is officially closed, but we can accept additions of individuals if you speak with us to get oriented. The class meets every other Sunday afternoon from 4:00 to 6:00 pm. DATES FOR MAY AND JUNE ARE 5/9, 5/23, 6/6 and 6/27.

Look for a new “Intergenerational Storytelling” series coming. It’s a chance to share your rich memories, funny incidents and surprising experiences.

An intimate “Grandparents Conversation” group continues in May.

Continuing our learning in the area of racism, there will be two opportunities this spring. The first is a multi-session book group on the book, Caste: The Origins of Our Discontents, by Isabel Wilkerson, led by Lila Shapero. Please check the weekly announcement for specific dates and to sign up.

The second opportunity is the Anti-Racism Film Series. Watch the movies on your own and then log into Zoom on Wednesday evenings at 7:45 for a discussion.

MAY 5 United States vs. Billie Holiday (streaming on Hulu)

MAY 19 One Night in Miami (streaming on Amazon)

JUNE 2 Just Mercy (streaming on Amazon)

Check the Adult Education page on the OZ website to register for the film series.

Finally, keep your eye out for the results of the survey by the Anti-Racism Work Group about our feelings, experiences and observations of racism in the Ohavi Zedek community.

Remember: Dates, Zoom links, registration and other information about classes may be found in the weekly announcements and on the OZ webpages: Upcoming Events and Adult Education.

~ Lynda Siegel

zebras.2@icloud.com