

SPARK
Strong, Prepared And Ready for Kindergarten

For More Information:
www.sparkaurora.org
630.896.4636

An Education Initiative of the Fox Valley United Way

Book of the Month

March 2021

Sunday	Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday	Saturday
	1 Talk: Explore your home to find matching colors	2	3	4 Read: "It's OK to be Different" by Todd Parr and talk about what makes you special	5	6
7 Play: Catch together and count how many times you caught the ball	8	9	10 Move: Play music from a different culture and create a dance	11	12 Explore: At the grocery store ask your child to find specific things	13
14	15 Talk: Watch Basics video "Talk, Sing and Point" and share it with a friend	16	17	18 Read: Look around town for a Little Free Library	19	20
21 Play: Make instruments together, here are some ideas!	22	23	24 Move: Here are some physical activities for young children	25	26 Explore: the sparkaurora.org website for virtual activities for your kids	27
28	29 Talk: Make up stories and songs with dolls or stuffed animals	30	31

March is National Music in Schools Month!

Click here for information about how important music is for your child's development