Stars emerge on New Year's Day

The popular New Year's Day fixture at Cheltenham has welcomed future stars since its addition to the racing calendar in 2005. There are three Graded races and two Listed events on the excellent seven-race card, with no contest worth less than £25,000.

Magners Cheltenham Gold Cup winners Denman and Bobs Worth both won over hurdles in their novice season. Denman bolted up in the rearranged G1 Challow Novices' Hurdle, which had been moved from Newbury, in 2006, while Bobs Worth captured what is now the Ballymore Novices' Hurdle in 2011.

Big Buck's kick-started his unprecedented 18-race winning streak over hurdles in the 2009 Simplify Horse Racing Selections With BetFinder At BetBright Handicap Hurdle, defeating future Grand National hero Don't Push It by a length and three quarters. Trained by Paul Nicholls and owned by Andy Stewart, his haul included four successive G1 Sun Racing Stayers' Hurdle triumphs at The Festival™ presented by Magners in March.

Star mare Annie Power continued her rise through the ranks with a comfortable victory over Zarkandar in the now discontinued Dornan Engineering Hurdle on New Year's Day 2014. She retired with 15 wins from 17 starts, headlined by her memorable success in the 2016 Unibet Champion Hurdle at The Festival™ presented by Magners – becoming the first mare to win the two-mile hurdling showpiece since Flakey Dove in 1994.

The New One's second victory under Rules came in the 2012 renewal of the EBF Stallions & Cheltenham Pony Club NH Bumper. He went on to win 17 times over hurdles, including a record-equalling three successes in the G2 Unibet International Hurdle at Cheltenham during The International in December.

The G2 Dornan Engineering Relkeel Hurdle, run at The International until 2015, is a key part of the excellent New Year's Day programme. It commemorates the hugely-popular Relkeel, who landed three consecutive renewals of what is now the G2 Unibet International Hurdle (1997, 1998 and 1999), and the New Year's Day race boasts a fabulous roll of honour with G1 Unibet Champion Hurdle winner Rock On Ruby and G1 Sun Racing Stayers' Hurdle victor More Of That having prevailed in recent years. Last year's winner Wholestone, trained locally by Nigel Twiston-Davies and likely to run again in 2019, went on to finish third in the G1 Sun Racing Stayers' Hurdle at The Festival™ presented by Magners.

The most valuable race on the card, the £75,000 Download The BetBright App Handicap Chase, is run over an extended two and half miles. Twiston-Davies has sent out the winner three times in the last five runnings of this very competitive handicap chase – Ballyhill (2018), Splash Of Ginge (2015) and Double Ross (2014).

The £35,000 G2 BetBright Dipper Novices' Chase, over the same trip, has seen top performers Yanworth (2018), Whisper (2017) and Seeyouatmidnight (2016) successful in the last three renewals.

Accompanied children aged 17 and under gain FREE admission into Cheltenham Racecourse on New Year's Day. The Family Fun Zone, located in the tented village for Club/Tattersalls ticket holders, has a whole host of activities on offer for younger racegoers on New Year's Day, from rosette making and giant inflatables to walking pet balloons and the Wheel of Fortune.

Paw Patrol's Chase and Marshall will be making personal appearances at intervals throughout the day - at 11am, 12noon, 1pm, 2pm and 3pm in the Family Fun Zone.

Club and Tattersalls ticket holders can enjoy live music from favourites the Wickermen who are performing throughout the day in the Guinness Village to get 2019 off to a fantastic start.

Racegoers can experience more live music in The Centaur after racing from the Hipcats Big Band. The Hipcats are well-known for their brilliant performances of upbeat jazz and swing with a cool and contemporary twist - songs you know and love with a few surprises too. Their stellar line-up of musicians has performed at top venues across the UK and they are always a great hit.
