THE JOCKEY CLUB CHELTENHAM

The International Media Guide 2019

The International takes place on the New Course at Cheltenham on Friday, 13 December and Saturday, 14 December and offers prize money of £601,800.

The feature races during the sparkling two-day meeting are the £140,000 G2 Unibet International Hurdle and the £130,000 G3 Caspian Caviar Gold Cup.

The Unibet International Hurdle is often a leading trial for the Unibet Champion Hurdle at The Festival™ presented by Magners in March, while the Caspian Caviar Gold Cup follows on from the BetVictor Gold Cup over the Old Course at The November Meeting and is always a very competitive handicap chase.

Saturday's card also includes the G2 Albert Bartlett Novices' Hurdle, the Park Mares' Handicap Hurdle and the Cheltenham Club Handicap Chase, which all have prize funds of at least £30,000.

Friday's highlight is the £60,000 G3 BetVictor Handicap Chase, while the £35,000 Glenfarclas Cross Country Handicap Chase takes place on the same day over Cheltenham's unique Cross Country Course and completes the European-wide Crystal Cup Challenge.

This media guide contains a wealth of statistics on the Unibet International Hurdle, the Caspian Caviar Gold Cup, the BetVictor Handicap Chase and the Glenfarclas Cross Country Handicap Chase.

Two horses who ran during The International in 2018 were successful at The Festival presented Magners™ later in the season - Frodon and Le Breuil.

Caspian Caviar Gold Cup Facts & Figures

Background information

The Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup takes place over an extended two and a half miles (2m 4f 127y) on the New Course at Cheltenham. In 2003, because of the lack of rain over the summer and during the autumn, the handicap chase was run over two miles and four and a half furlongs of the Old Course at Cheltenham. There have been 49 runnings, the first in 1963, with seven abandonments. Frost intervened in 2001, 1995 and 1976, snow in 1990 and 1981, while the 1967 event was cancelled because of a foot and mouth epidemic and the 2008 race was lost to waterlogging.

Multiple winners

Poquelin (2009 & 2010) and Frodon (2016 & 2018), both trained by Paul Nicholls, are the only multiple winners of the Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup.

Irish-trained winners

There have been six Irish-trained winners of the Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup. The victories of Limeking (1963), Flying Wild (1964) and Flyingbolt (1965) ensured that the first three runnings all went to Ireland. However, no horse hailing from the Emerald Isle was successful between Leap Frog (1971) and Go Roger Go, victorious in 2000. Sir Oj became the most recent Irish-trained winner in 2005.

Highest weight

The highest weight carried to victory in the Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup was the 12st 7lb shouldered by Pendil in 1973. Other notable weight-carrying performances came from Flyingbolt with 12st 6lb in 1965 and Leap Frog with 12st 1lb in 1971. Pendil is the only horse to have also won the other major race at The International, the G2 hurdle now run as the Unibet International, which he did in 1970. The highest weight currently is 11st 12lb, which Frodon won under in 2018.

Betting

Pendil also has the distinction of being the shortest-priced victor at 8/11. Only 10 favourites or joint-favourites have won the Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup in 49 runnings (just over 20 per cent) - Flyingbolt (1965, 5/2), Titus Oates (1969, 9/4), Leap Frog (1971, 3/1), Arctic Bow (1972, 9/2), Pendil (1973, 8/11), Fifty Dollars More (1983, 3/1), Oregon Trail (1986, 3/1), Kings Fountain (1991, 7/4), Addington Boy (1996, 7/4) and Poquelin (2009, 7/2). However, a fancied horse - if not the favourite - usually captures the Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup, with 37 victors being returned at single-figure odds, including Frodon at 7/1 in 2018. Tamarinbleu became the longest-priced winner when scoring at 22/1 in 2007.

Age

Unioniste and Frodon, both trained by Paul Nicholls, have been the youngest winners of the race, having scored aged four in 2012 and 2016 respectively. Tassilo (1968) and Garnishee (1974) were both 10 when successful and are the two oldest winners. The age breakdown is 4yo (2), 5yo (1), 6yo (12), 7yo (12), 8yo (15), 9yo (5) & 10yo (2).

Trainers

Paul Nicholls is the most successful trainer in the history of the Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup, with five victories courtesy of Poquelin (2009 & 2010), Unioniste (2012) and Frodon (2016 & 2018).

Female trainers have saddled the Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup winner four times - Auriol Sinclair with Simian (1970), Jenny Pitman with Bueche Giorod (1980), Susan Nock with Senior El Betrutti (1997) and Venetia Williams with Niceonefrankie (2014).

Jockeys

Richard Johnson is the most successful jockey, thanks to three victories on Village Vic (2015), Monkerhostin (2004) and Legal Right (1999). Sam Twiston-Davies is the only other current rider to have won the race more than once - Double Ross (2013) and Frodon (2016).

Did you know?

Arkle, the greatest chaser of all time and triumphant in the Cheltenham Gold Cup three times, experienced a rare reversal in the 1964 renewal. Anne Duchess of Westminster's charge shouldered top-weight of 12st 10lb (which included a 3lb penalty for winning the Hennessy Gold Cup just seven days beforehand) and stayed on in third behind the high-class Irish mare Flying Wild (received 32lb) and Buona Notte (received 26lb).

Pegwell Bay (1988), Senior El Betrutti (1997) and Exotic Dancer (2006) are the only three horses to have landed both the BetVictor Gold Cup and the Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup in the same season. Five other horses have won both races but in different years. Fondmort took the 2003 BetVictor Gold Cup and the Caspiar Caviar Gold Cup the previous season, while Dublin Flyer (BV 1995, CCGC 1994), Another Coral (BV 1991, CCGC 1992), Beau Ranger (BV 1987, CCGC 1984) and Fifty Dollars More (BV 1982, CCGC 1983) also won both races.

Unibet International Hurdle

Facts & Figures

Background information

The Unibet International Hurdle was first run in 1963 and there have been 51 runnings, with the race abandoned five times. Two renewals took place at other courses after Cheltenham could not race in 2001 (Newbury) and 2008 (Ascot).

Up until 1977, the prestigious contest was called the Cheltenham Trial Hurdle. It was renamed in 1977 to reflect Bula's successes at Cheltenham, including the Champion Hurdle in both 1971 and 1972. He also won a division of the Supreme Novices' Hurdle in 1970 and finished third in the 1975 Cheltenham Gold Cup. Bula won the race subsequently named in his honour in 1972, the same year as his second Champion Hurdle victory.

Boylesports backed the renamed International between 2006 & 2009, with another bookmaker, Stan James, taking over the sponsorship in 2010 as part of its "Road To Cheltenham". Unibet, which like Stan James is owned by the Kindred Group, sponsored for the first time in 2017.

Betting

The shortest-priced winners have been Comedy Of Errors (1973) and The New One (2013), who both returned at 2/5. In the 51 runnings, 24 favourites (47%) have been successful. Solway Sands (1968) provided the biggest shock when winning at 33/1.

Multiple winners

Bird's Nest (1977, 1978 & 1980), Relkeel (1997, 1998 & 1999) and more recently The New One (2013, 2014 & 2016) are all three-time winners of the International Hurdle. The race has seen two dual winners - Comedy Of Errors (1973 & 1974) and Large Action (1994 & 1996).

Trainers

Nicky Henderson is the most successful trainer with five wins. Nigel Twiston-Davies is next best with four victories, while Bob Turnell, Oliver Sherwood, Philip Hobbs and Paul Nicholls have each trained three winners of the race.

Irish-trained winners

There have been three Irish-trained winners - Harchibald (2005 - trained by Noel Meade), Back In Front (2004 - Edward O'Grady) and Condor Pan (1988 - Jim Bolger).

Jockeys

Richard Johnson is the winning-most jockey, recording six victories on Relkeel (1997 & 1999), Rooster Booster (2002), Detroit City (2006) Menorah (2010) and The New One (2016).

Field size

The largest field was in 1977 when 10 runners went to post, while four horses lined up in 1966, 1974, 2001 and 2006.

Age

Seven four-year-olds have won, 13 five-year-olds, 12 six-year-olds, eight seven-year-olds, six eight-year-olds, two nine-year-olds and three 10-year-olds - hat-trick achiever Relkeel in 1999, Bird's Nest, also a three-time winner, in 1980 and My Tent Or Yours in 2017.

BetVictor Handicap Chase

Facts & Figures

Background information

The race has been run 49 times in total since 1963. It was not held in 1964, 1968 or 1969, while frost intervened in 1976 and 1987, snow caused the abandonment of the 1981 card and the 1967 meeting was lost due to the foot and mouth epidemic.

The distance has alternated during its history, though the contest has always taken place between three miles and three miles & two furlongs (the present distance).

Betting

Favourites have a decent record, obliging on 21 occasions (a 42.85% strike rate). The most recent market leader to triumph was Midnight Chase at 11/4 in 2010.

Kingscliff at 4/7 in 2003 is the shortest-priced winner, while Benbane Head became the longest-priced scorer when obliging at 16/1 in 2014.

Trainers

Josh Gifford's five victories through Jack Madness (1979), Door Latch (1984) and hat-trick hero Yorkshire Gale (1995, 1996 & 1997) made the trainer, who died in February, 2012, the most successful handler in the race's history.

Among current trainers, Nicky Henderson, David Pipe and Venetia Williams lead the way with three successes each.

Irish-trained winners

There have been only two Irish-trained winners - Mighty's Honour in 1978 and Flashing Steel in 1993.

Jockeys

Norman Williamson has been the winning-most rider in the race's history with five successes aboard Third In Line (1991), Whispering Steel (1994), Yorkshire Gale (1996 & 1997) and Royale De Vassy (2001).

Tom Scudamore, successful on Master Overseer (2012) and Monbeg Dude (2013), is the only current jockey to win the race more than once.

Weight

The Dikler (1970), Diamond Edge (1980) and Brown Chamberlin (1982) all shouldered 12st to victory. At the other end of the spectrum, Aachen carried only 9st 9lb to success in 2015, thanks to Charlie Deutsch's 5lb claim. Lavenshaw (1972), Rubstic (1975), Musso (1983), Yorkshire Gale (1995), Tamarindo (1998), Royale De Vassy (2001), The Package (2009) and Master Overseer (2012) scored with only 10st on their backs.

Age

Tamarindo, a five-year-old when triumphant in 1998, is the youngest winner.

Aachen, victorious in 2015, and Bucko, successful in 1988, are the oldest winners, with both triumphant at the age of 11.

Field size

The largest fields were in 2007 and 2010, when 16 runners lined up. Only two horses took part in 1996.

Multiple winners

Yorkshire Gale (1995, 1996, 1997) won the contest three times and is the only multiple winner.

Did you know?

Of the winners, Rubstic (1975) and Mon Mome (2008) both subsequently won the Grand National, while The Dikler (1970) went on to success in the Cheltenham Gold Cup.

Glenfarclas Cross Country Handicap Chase – the final leg of the Crystal Cup European Cross Country Challenge

The Glenfarclas Cross Country Handicap Chase is one of three Cross Country contests staged at Cheltenham during the season. The two others contests are staged at The November Meeting and at The Festival™ presented by Magners.

The Glenfarclas Cross Country Handicap Chase at The International forms the final leg of the Crystal Cup European Cross Country Challenge.

The Crystal Cup European Cross Country Challenge was a new initiative developed in 2010 that brings together the finest international horses and riders to reward the most successful stable in cross country steeple chasing.

The 11-race series, with over 800,000 Euros in prize money, will be hosted by many of Europe's premier racecourses, over unique combinations of hedges, banks, ditches and timber. The Challenge begins in Pau in South West France in February. The final race is at Cheltenham in December following four further races in France and visits to Poland, Belgium, Italy and to the Czech Republic for the Velka Pardubika.
