ABOUT THE ALL-WEATHER CHAMPIONSHIPS

Season eight of the All-Weather Championships runs from Tuesday, October 20, 2020 and culminates with All-Weather Championships Finals Day on Good Friday, April 2, 2021 at Lingfield Park.

The six championship categories are:

Three-Year-Olds sponsored by Ladbrokes - 6f Final

Fillies & Mares sponsored by Ladbrokes - 7f Final

Mile sponsored by Bombardier - 1m Final

Sprint sponsored by Betway - 6f Final

Marathon sponsored by Betway - 2m Final

Middle Distance sponsored by Betway - 10f Final

There are two ways for horses to qualify for one of the finals on All-Weather Championships Finals Day at Lingfield Park:

* A horse can win a 'Fast Track Qualifier' race which will ensure a FREE and GUARANTEED place in the corresponding final on Good Friday. There are four Fast Track Qualifiers in each of the six Championship Categories hosted at racecourses in Great Britain, Ireland and France. If a filly wins any of the Fast-Track Qualifier races for either the Sprint or the Mile categories, the filly will be qualified for the final of that specific category, or for the Fillies and Mares Final.

* A horse must run a minimum of three times on the All-Weather surfaces in Great Britain, Ireland and France; or twice on the All-Weather surfaces in Great Britain, Ireland, France and once on dirt in Dubai during the qualifying period between October 20, 2020 and the six-day entry stage for the finals (Saturday, March 28, 2021) and then be rated high enough to 'make the cut' in a final by order of its BHA Rating.

In addition, prizes will be awarded to each of the All-Weather Champions - the 'All Stars' - based on the number of winners at the end of the All-Weather Championships season:

Champion All-Weather Jockey (winner and runner-up)

Champion All-Weather Apprentice Jockey (winner and runner-up)

Champion All-Weather Trainer

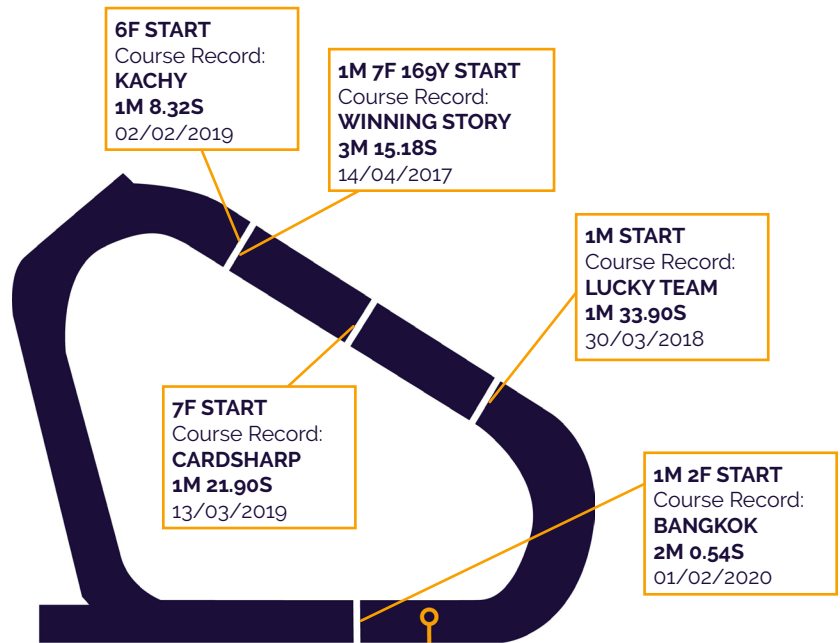

Champion All-Weather Owner

Winning Most All-Weather Horse

LINGFIELD PARK

Lingfield Park is the only racecourse in Great Britain to offer all three codes of racing – All-Weather, Turf and Jump.

Lingfield Park staged Britain's first fixture on an artificial surface on October 30, 1989.

Lingfield Park launched the newly resurfaced Polytrack in October 2012, showing strong commitment to the future growth of All-Weather Racing in the UK.

This investment, complemented by the regeneration of the famous race-course (construction of a £5.5 million grandstand and 4* Marriott Hotel), put Lingfield Park firmly on the map as a major state-of-the-art racing, conference and leisure destination with facilities to match any in the country.

Located in a 450-acre estate and opened in 1890 by the Prince of Wales (later King Edward VIII), who also agreed to let Lingfield Park incorporate the Prince of Wales feathers into its official heading, the course initially held Jump racing only.

The Jockey Club granted permission for Flat racing to be held in 1894 and it has continued ever since. In 1982, the new owners installed flood defences on the estate to alleviate flooding. A golf course was developed and this opened in June 1987.

Lingfield Park was granted permission to construct a 10-furlong left-handed Equitrack All-Weather track on the inside of its turf course in December 1988.

Rapporteur was one of the first specialist performers on Equitrack, rack-ing up 14 victories on the surface. Trained in Lambourn by Charlie Elsey for most of his career and owned by Richard Berenson, Rapporteur also won five times on turf at Lingfield Park. In fact, all of his successes came at Lingfield Park, despite racing 33 times at other courses.

Other specialists at Lingfield Park have included Respectable Jones, an 11-time winner between 1990 and 1994, Krystal Max, who scored 13 times from 1995 to 2001, Bank On Him, successful 12 times between 1999 and 2005, and Chjimes, a 13-time winner between 2008 and 2012.

LINGFIELD PARK

Aidan O'Brien worked a six-strong team at Lingfield in March 2002, that included Johannesburg, Hawk Wing, Rock Of Gibraltar, Sholokov and Castle Gandolfo.

Lingfield Park made history on April 18, 2014, by becoming the first English course to stage racing on a Good Friday.

The Winter Derby was introduced in 1998, with the first running going the way of future globetrotting star Running Stag. Trainer Philip Mitchell's flagbearer won three G2 events in America, as well as running in Dubai, France, Germany and Hong Kong.

The Winter Derby was given Listed status in 1999 and upgraded to G3 level in 2006. Recent winners of the 10-furlong contest have included the 2015 winner Tryster, who progressed to success on the international stage, with victory in Dubai's G1 Jebel Hatta Stakes.

The surface at Lingfield Park changed to Polytrack from Equitrack in November 2001 and this switch was the key to attracting better horses onto the All-Weather, whether to race or to work.

Castle Gandolfo won the inaugural running of the International Trial in April 2002, which has been captured by Dubawi Gold (2011) and Van Der Neer (2013), and both Richard Hannon-trained colts went on to be placed in the 2,000 Guineas at Newmarket.

Lingfield Park stages nine other Listed races each year on Polytrack, which have been won by subsequent G1 scorers Decorated Knight, Paco Boy and Gitano Hernando in recent years.

It's also worth paying close attention to maidens. Snow Fairy captured a six-furlong maiden in July 2009, and subsequently annexed six G1 races around the world, while Monterosso took a mile maiden the following January and progressed to land the 2012 Dubai World Cup.

Simple Verse and Harbour Law started their careers in middle-distance maidens at Lingfield Park during the All-Weather Championships and, by the end of the year, progressed to win the final British Classic of the season, the St Leger on turf at Doncaster, in 2015 and 2016 respectively.

A sell-out crowd attended the inaugural All-Weather Championship Finals Day, which boasted a total of £1 million in prize money, making it the richest ever day of All-Weather racing.

The All-Weather track at Lingfield Park runs around the inside of the turf course. It is a left-handed loop and follows much the same line as the turf course in the home straight and the back straight but turns sharply for home at the end of the back straight and is 1m 2f in length.

The track gently rises to a slight hill at the start of the back straight before running downhill around the bottom corner and into the home straight where it levels off. The result is that the 1m, 7f, 6f and 5f starts are all downhill, which contributes to Lingfield being the sharpest of Britain's All-Weather tracks.

ALL-WEATHER TIMELINE

A sell-out crowd enjoy
All-Weather Championships
Finals Day at Lingfield Park

1984

All-Weather racing in the UK is first considered as a result of the harsh winter of 1984/85 during which 72 Jump racedays were lost.

1987

The Jockey Club receives seven proposals for the construction of All-Weather tracks in February 1987.

1988

In December 1988, Lingfield Park in Surrey is given permission to install an Equitrack surface on the inside of its turf track. Equitrack hit the headlines in 1986 with the opening of the Al Bahathri gallop in Newmarket. It is also the surface of choice for the world's first All-Weather racetrack installed at Remington Park, Oklahoma, USA.

Southwell, at Rolleston in Nottinghamshire, is the second racecourse in Britain to be given the go-ahead to construct an All-Weather track in June 1989.

The first All-Weather raceday in the UK is staged at Lingfield Park on October 30, 1989, with the opening race going the way of the Conrad Allen-trained Niklas Angel, partnered by Richard Quinn and owned by Peter Charalambous.

Southwell's first All-Weather Flat fixture takes place nine days later. It is the first racecourse in the world to utilise Fibresand on the outside of its turf course. The surface was already installed at all four of Britain's major training centres - Epsom, Lambourn, Malton and Newmarket.

During its first year, All-Weather racing generated an estimated £580,000 in extra revenue through levy payments.

1993

Wolverhampton Racecourse also opts for Fibresand when replacing its turf course and stages the first floodlit fixture in the UK on December 27, 1993.

1995

By 1995, there are 125 All-Weather racedays spread across the three venues. Wolverhampton's Wulfrun Stakes, introduced in December 1995, is the first Listed race on the All-Weather in Britain.

1998

Lingfield Park's Winter Derby, first run in 1998, gains Listed status a year later & becomes a Group Three in 2006.

2001

Advances in All-Weather surfaces sees Lingfield Park replace Equitrack with Polytrack, costing £3 million.

ALL-WEATHER TIMELINE

On July 9, 2005, Lingfield Park stages the G3 Silver Trophy Stakes, the first Group race run on the All-Weather in Britain. The mile contest goes the way of the Geoff Wragg-trained Autumn Glory, ridden by Steve Drowne and owned by Mollers Racing, who holds off subsequent G1 victor Court Masterpiece by a neck.

2006

The Jockey Club-owned Kempton Park, at Sunbury on Thames in Middlesex, moves its Flat programme on to a floodlit Polytrack surface in March 2006.

2007

Dundalk, Ireland's only All-Weather track, stages its first raceday on Polytrack on August 26, 2007.

2008

Great Leighs opens in April 2008, with an eight and a half furlong Polytrack circuit, the first new racecourse to race in Britain since Taunton (1927), but the Essex track goes into administration in January 2009.

The inaugural All-Weather Championships, aimed at improving the image & quality of All-Weather racing, commences in October. The initiative sees £2 million of extra prize money injected into the All-Weather season by ARC, with a £1-million All-Weather Championships Finals Day at Lingfield Park on Good Friday, 2014.

A consortium headed up by Betfred owner Fred Done buys Great Leighs in December 2013 and renames the track Chelmsford City Racecourse.

On April 18, 2014, the first All-Weather Championships Finals Day is held at Lingfield Park, with a sell-out Good Friday crowd of 8,777.

On April 28, 2014, it is announced that Wolverhampton will be the first course in Britain install the Tapeta racing surface. The track holds its first fixture on the new surface on August 11.

Racing resumes at Chelmsford City on January 11, 2015, with subsequent G1 winner and All-Weather Champion Tryster winning the first race at the re-opened course.

2016

Following a near £12-million investment by ARC, Newcastle Racecourse hosts its first All-Weather fixture on May 17, 2016. The Tapeta track includes the only floodlit straight mile in the UK.

2019

Southwell becomes the first European racecourse to install a state-of-the-art LED floodlight system, with the first evening fixture taking place at the Nottinghamshire course on March 30.

Kameko wins the first G1 race to be run on the All-Weather in Britain, the Vertem Futurity, at Newcastle on November 1, 2019.

The Qatar Racing Limited-owned colt would go on to Classic glory on his next start in the G1 2,000 Guineas at Newmarket in June 2020.

What they did next

FOREST RANGER

Developed into a high-class performer over a mile and a quarter, winning successive runnings of Chester's G2 Huxley Stakes in 2018 and 2019 as well as a pair of G3 contests at Newmarket. The third home in the Burradon Stakes that year, Utmost, captured the 2018 Listed Betway Winter Derby Trial at Lingfield Park.

GRONKOWSKI

Transferred to US trainer Chad Brown following his Newcastle victory. The Lonhro colt finished second to Triple Crown hero Justify on his US debut in the G1 Belmont Stakes. He was the bridesmaid again when going down by a nose to Thunder Snow in the 2019 G1 Dubai World Cup.

FOX POWER

Has failed to shine since his Newcastle victory. The 2019 Burradon Stakes did however contain two horses who would go on to perform at the highest level as four-year-olds. Marie's Diamond finished third behind Circus Maximus in the G1 Queen Anne Stakes at Royal Ascot while Pogo filled the same position behind Persian King in the G1 Prix d'Ispahan at Chantilly.
