Leading trainers at The Festival™ presented by Magners

Thursday, February 14, 2019 - Gordon Elliott captured The Irish Independent Leading Trainer Award for the second successive year in 2018, sending out a magnificent joint-record eight winners over the four days of The Festival™ presented by Magners.

Elliott's eight winners equalled the record set by his great rival in Ireland, Willie Mullins, in 2015. Mullins enjoyed seven winners in 2018 to become the most successful trainer of all-time at The Festival with 61 successes, overtaking Britain's Nicky Henderson, who has had 60 victories after two wins and six seconds last year.

Despite gaining his first Festival victory as recently as 2011, Elliott is already up to 22 winners and only behind Willie Mullins, Tom Dreaper and Vincent O'Brien when it comes to the most successful Irish-based trainers of all time at The Festival.

If there is still a tie, the number of third places will be taken into account and the award will be shared if there remains a tie after that.

Pauling back with several good chances at The Festival

Gloucestershire trainer Ben Pauling is readying a promising team of young horses for The Festival™ presented by Magners, led by G1 Unibet Champion Hurdle contender Global Citizen.

Pauling, who is based near Bourton-on-the-Water, is no stranger to success at the four-day extravaganza, having sent out Willoughby Court to win the G1 Ballymore Novices' Hurdle in 2017.

Global Citizen has been successful on four of his seven starts since joining Pauling halfway through the 2017/18 season.

The seven-year-old, generally an aggressive front-runner, benefited from more conservative tactics on his latest start when landing the G2 The New One Unibet Champion Hurdle Trial by three lengths at Haydock Park on January 19.

Pauling reported: "I could not be happier with Global Citizen. His preparation will be ramped up over the next couple of weeks, but he has come out of Haydock in great form.

"We decided to change the tactics last time, which worked well, and we will try to take a lead in the Champion Hurdle [2m, 3.30pm, Tuesday, March 12].

"Hopefully, they will go a really decent gallop and that will enable him to sit behind the pace for longer.

"He is the sort of horse that once they have jumped two or three hurdles, if they aren't going quick enough, he can go on and pick up the pace.

"He is very good jumper and that is very much his forte. Fingers crossed, Global Citizen will have a live each-way chance.

"You have got the proven horse in there in Buveur D'Air (winner of the Unibet Champion Hurdle for the last two years), and Apple's Jade was mightily impressive in the Irish Champion Hurdle the other day.

"Then behind them, you have Laurina who is clearly a very good horse, but she has not been tested at this level. I think it is all to play for the places."

Talented novice chaser Kildisart has been in the Cheltenham winner's enclosure already this season, following his two-length victory under 11st 7lb in the Timeform Novices' Handicap Chase on Festival Trials Day, January 26.

That performance has left Kildisart with a rating of 147, just 4lb shy of G1 JLT Novices' Chase favourite Defi Du Seuil.

Pauling continued: "Kildisart is in great order and is heading towards the JLT Novices' Chase [2m 4f, 1.30pm, Thursday, March 14].

"We were thinking of going for the Pendil [Novices' Chase, Kempton Park, February 23] beforehand, but he had his flu jab recently so I would imagine he will head straight to Cheltenham.

"He needs to improve another 5lb or so to be winning the JLT, though I do not think that is beyond him.

"I think he has got every chance and the better the race, the better he will be, as he half races behind the bridle and then comes there travelling well."

Among Pauling's novice hurdlers, Bright Forecast is arguably unlucky not to be unbeaten this season. After eye-catching victories at Newbury and Leicester, he forfeited several lengths on the clubhouse turn in the G2 Sky Bet Supreme Trial Rossington Main Novices' Hurdle at Haydock Park on January 19, ultimately finishing two and a half lengths behind Mister Fisher.

"The Ballymore Novices' Hurdle (G1, 2m 5f, Wednesday, March 13) is a strong possibility for Bright Forecast," said Pauling. "I think stepping up to two and a half miles is going to bring out nothing but improvement.

"He is bred to want further than two miles, and at Haydock on a sharp track, he looked like he would really enjoy going another half a mile.

"If he doesn't go to Cheltenham, he will head to Aintree for the two and a half-mile novices' hurdle."

Pauling also provided updates on Nadaitak and Le Breuil. Nadaitak impressed when taking the G2 Albert Bartlett River Don Novices' Hurdle by 22 lengths at Doncaster on January 26, while Le Breuil has made an encouraging start to his chasing career, though was slightly below par when fourth in the G2 Altcar Novices' Chase at Haydock Park on January 19.

The trainer said: "The question with Nadaitak is whether I run him on the undulating track at Cheltenham or whether he will be much better suited to the Sefton Novices' Hurdle at Aintree on a flat track.

"I will take a view once we have clearer idea of what else is going turn up at Cheltenham and make a decision then.

"Le Breuil will run in either the Ultima Handicap Chase [G3, 3m 1f, Tuesday, March 12] or the National Hunt Chase [G2, nearly 4m, Tuesday, March 12].

"He looked very progressive and consistent in his first four starts over fences. He was disappointing at Haydock, but had a genuine excuse because he came back with a dirty track wash.

"He will like stepping back up to three miles, it is just a question of whether four miles in the National Hunt Chase is too far."

Pauling, 35, started training at the beginning of the 2013 season after spending six years as assistant to Nicky Henderson, who knows all about sending out winners at The Festival.
