

ASL ARTS, THAT!

By Barbara Wingfield, MS ASL Arts and HS ASL Lit teacher

Remember the 2018 National Literacy ASL Competition by Gallaudet Youth programs and Phi Kappa Zeta sorority? We got five middle school winners!

Congratulations to ZaniBelle Hoglind who won 1st place in Middle School ASL Presentation and the grand prize in ASL competition.

Congratulations to Alejo Martinez who won 1st place in Middle School ASL Poetry.

Congratulations to Zivia Gale who 2nd place in Middle School ASL Poetry.

Congratulations to Lily Blessing who had received honorable mention in Middle School ASL Presentation and Edward Tinker in ASL Poetry.

Some of you came to Literacy Night and did not have the opportunity to play Kahoot! game so here is the link that you can play online with your family and friends to learn more how to sign classifiers on body parts of pets and animals. We also have a pdf of the bilingual chart to learn both in ASL and English.
