

In STEAM Club after school, the elementary students have been focusing on different components in an electrical circuit. They've made LED light-up superhero masks, vibrating robots and their final project is building a gameshow-type buzzer with a light, so that they can compete in a STEAM gameshow during their club time on March 7th. They've all done a great job and had A LOT of fun!

