Scared Thresholds of Love and Service 2026-03-04 Newsletter

Let Us Pray

Omnipotent and Ever Faithful God,

We give You thanks for the seasons that shaped us, stretched us, and strengthened us as community.
Thank You for revealing the courage we didn't know we had, Your grace that carries us, and the wisdom that only You can provide.
Let us reflect on Psalm 139: 1-18, as we pause in the tender space between what has been and what will be.
V. 7 echoes, "Where can I go from Your Spirit? Where can I flee from Your presence?"
A verse, taken to heart, as the answer has been made clear by our Creator.
Nothing offered in faith is ever lost.
Nothing given in love is ever wasted.
Loving God, teach us to trust in You and the seasons You offer us.
May we pray in the quiet of the night, may we listen in the still of the morning.
As it is only through intentional prayer and meditation, that You guide us.
Let us honor the sacred threshold afoot, in love, in service, and in gratitude for what has been and what will be.
Let us acknowledge what has been gathered, and the path You have prepared before us, as we embrace the mystery of faith.
For only You, God, know the plan.
Teach us to listen and follow Your path, the best we can.
It is with thankful heart and open hands, I step forward with Your grace.
Amen
