High Holiday Bulletin 2025

Message from Rabbi Yerachmiel Shapiro

I was dreaming last night. It was one of those dreams on the edge of becoming a nightmare, but you're not yet sure. I was late to get on a cruise. I knew that if I didn't get there in time, the boat would leave without me. I finally arrived with my family and I saw that there was a line twisting and turning through the parking lot, then out of the parking lot and up the sidewalk along the road. Everyone was hopelessly late. I felt better knowing I wasn't the only one and hoped that the ship would be forced to wait for all of us latecomers. If it was to leave, it might be a mostly empty ship. As I was standing in the line (it seemed to move fairly fast) I noticed the name on the front of the ship. It was called, "Truth of the Seas". I guess my subconscious prefers Royal Caribbean. (Of course, "____ of the Seas" is how Royal Caribbean names all their ships.) I got very excited and tried to tell everyone around me, "Look at that!! What a name!! The best cruise ship of all!!!"

As I was thinking about what to write in the High Holiday bulletin, it occurred to me that my "dream-mare" was about the upcoming High Holidays. Every year the holidays sneak up on me. "Don't worry", I said in June, "I'll work on my High Holiday speeches over the summer." Well, "summertime done come and gone, my oh my". But more than the lack of speeches (don't worry, I have a lot of ideas), it is the spiritual preparation for the holiest time of the year where I feel like I'm running most behind schedule. But not to worry. We're all late!!

The most important spiritual journey of the year for us Jews is getting ready to depart and so many of us are running way behind. Buying High Holiday seats and inviting friends and family as well as cooking meals are just a minor part of the planning. What about the purpose of the cruise itself- A journey towards finding, reminding ourselves, reawakening, and reuniting with Truth. Rosh Hashana and Yom Kippur (not to mention Sukkos) are a spiritual voyage towards Truth on the Royal King of Universe Cruise Line. This voyage stops at no less than three separate truth destinations- personal truth, the truths of others, and God's truth.

The first destination is that of personal truth. The High Holidays are a time for us to clarify and distill our own understanding of what is true. We want to be able to trust and listen to the inner voice that comes from our heart-the voice of our soul. In order to do that, we need to clean the shmootz that gathers over a year. We need to atone and go through a process of teshuva in order to revive our integrity, the power of our word and will, and a renewal of our self-respect and belief that we are good people who are destined for good. Then we can know that the voice we hear is a reflection of our true and noble soul- the voice of Emes.

The second destination is considering the truths of others. On the High Holidays we think about people we may have hurt or wronged. Many of them even live with us!! We acknowledge that the truths of our loved ones, friends, and even our co-workers and neighbors should mean something to us. It is a time to ask for forgiveness from those we wronged and to forgive those who ask us to free them from guilt. Emes is intimately linked with Shalom.

The third destination is to do our very best to accept God's Truth. The High Holidays are the primary time to reawaken a sense of gratitude and wonder for the gift of life. Remember that life is not a given but rather a gift. It is the time to remember the Torah and try to grow in little steps towards living our lives in consonance with Jewish laws and traditions. Our predecessors didn't pass these from generation to generation for us to abandon them. Finally, it is a time to become God-Conscious trying to go through life with the feeling that All is One- that God is One. When we realize that All is One, our truth, the truths of others, and God's Truth move towards alignment and the world is healed.

I learned something beautiful about the Shema this year. The Rabbinic understanding of the Shema, "Hear of Israel, The Lord is our God, The Lord is One (Deuteronomy 6: 4)" is not just a proclamation of faith, but rather an expression of hope. The Lord is our God (Now). The Lord is One (In the future everyone will recognize God's truth and God will be One) as it says, "On that day, Hashem will be One and His Name will be One (Zechariah 14: 9). As in the big finish by the High Holiday Choir! "U'shemo-O u'shemo-O u'shemoooo eeechhhaaad." We end our prayers morning, noon, and night, with the expressed hope for a day when everyone knows that All is One.

We may be late, but the line is moving fast and soon we'll all be onboard together. We embark on this lovely voyage on the "Truth of the Seas". The MMAE High Holiday Love Boat is certainly one of my favorite places to be. The singing, the ruach, the chazzon, the choir, the honey cake (and this year coffee!), and some people even like the rabbi's speeches (I promise they will be shorter this year!). I can't wait to share this meaningful yearly experience with you once again.

May we all be blessed with a Sweet, Happy, and Healthy New Year.

Shana Tova with Love,

Rabbi Yerachmiel Shapiro

Messages from our Officers

From Jeff Forman, President

The High Holidays are always a time for reflection. We reflect on our own lives, we remember those members (family, really) to whom we have had to say goodbye. We welcome those new members of our family, and strive to make them feel that they are an important part of the MMAE family and its future - because they are. This is a time to count our blessings and move enthusiastically into a new year. For me, it is like golf. Every hole gives you a chance to start from scratch with a clean slate. The horrible shots you hit last hole won't matter as you approach the next hole. Neither will the great shots you hit. So you can approach every tee box saying, I get to start all over and I am going to do great this hole. To my way of thinking, the completion of High Holiday season is like golf - only it is for keeps. We start a new year with a clean scorecard after finishing the al chaits on Yom Kippur. And we try to be better in the next year than we were in the year just ended. The days leading up to the High Holidays are where we use the rear view mirror, but the real blessing is that we are granted the ability to only use the windshield going forward.

I am very grateful to everyone at this shul for entrusting me to be your president. I take that high honor with humility and with a goal of making MMAE the best shul anywhere. Part of how we are doing that is through community outreach. The Katz Music Venue, made possible through the vision of Rabbi Shapiro and the generosity of Molly Katz, obm, whom we just lost in August, is starting to fulfill the goal of making MMAE the place to get some chicken soup for the soul through concerts by mostly Jewish artists and Jewish musicians. We have KSA, a warm and welcoming Orthodox shul downstairs in the Katz Music Venue when we don't have concerts. In addition to the ongoing Sylvia Rosenblatt Hebrew Unschool on Sundays, this year we are having a Jewish girls' day school in the newly constructed classrooms downstairs, during the week. We even have a big band rehearsing in the Social Hall Thursday nights, and in return for which they perform several free concerts for us during the year. So the new, bright, LED lights are on, the building is hopping and we are achieving our goal of making MMAE a true Jewish community center. We are blessed to have devoted officers, office staff, lay leaders and rabbinic leaders who are second to none. Without each of them, none of this would be possible.

Joan and I wish each and every congregant, friend, and family a sweet, happy, and healthy New Year. May it be filled with blessings. Shana Tovah u'metukah.

From Bob Meyerson, Chairman

As we approach the beginning of the High Holiday season, we are looking forward to what MMAE will be offering our congregation, their families and friends.

This would include our long awaited return of our beloved Chazen Shlomo Abramson and his family. We are anticipating the inspirational and enlightening message from our extraordinary spiritual leader Rabbi Yerachmiel Shapiro.

Who can forget our exceptional choir to help make our High Holidays so special?

Of course, first and foremost is our hope for the safety and peace in Israel for our brothers and sisters and the return of all the hostages.

Marilyn and I would like to extend our heartfelt hopes and prayers for everyone to have a happy, healthy, prosperous, and sweet New Year.

Help Support MMAE and the Rabbis - "I Didn't Know That"

Rabbi Shapiro's DISCRETIONARY FUND

A contribution to the Discretionary Fund enables new programs and ideas to enhance what we offer to our congregation and community. Often, speakers and classes, books and materials, programs and commemorations are funded through the Discretionary Fund in order to avoid a financial burden on our operating budget. Your contributions "in honor of" or "in memory of" are always appropriately acknowledged. If you appreciate something that the synagogue and/or staff have done, a contribution to the Discretionary Fund enables more to be done for the benefit of all. Think of the Discretionary Fund when you think of saying, "thanks for a job well done". It also helps organizations and people in need.

Call the shul office if you would like to make a donation.

MMAE'S BEAUTIFUL NEW LEGACY BOARD

on display in the shul lobby

You can continue to show your support even after you have passed on by leaving a bequest in your Will to MMAE. Leaving a bequest from your estate is one way that you can ensure that the great work done by your shul can continue into the future. When we leave a legacy to our shul, we are expressing our hopes for the next generation as those who came before us did. We have several attorneys who have volunteered to help you write or change your Will so that you can add a gift to MMAE as a lasting show of your devotion to MMAE and our good work. Please consider calling the office to set up a meeting with someone who can assist you in this critical and worthy display of love and support.

PET MEMORIAL BOARD

Pet owners have a special bond with their furry family members and would do anything for them. When the idea was proposed to install a memorial board to our beloved departed pets, we said "YES". What a great idea. A dedication board has been installed in the Ginsberg Youth Room. You can memorialize your beloved pets on this board for only $100. If you are interested in having your pet's name included on this unique board, please call the office.
