Don’t Mourn, Organize!

The OOA “Don’t Mourn, Organize” campaign started after the 2016 presidential election. The phrase “Don’t mourn, organize!” came out of the progressive labor movement of the early 20th century. Prior to his execution by the state, labor organizer Joe Hill had written to Bill Haywood, a founder of the International Workers of the World, "Don't waste any time in mourning. Organize...” Despite strong government resistance to the work of the IWW, songwriter Joe Hill tirelessly worked as a labor organizer and activist, organizing and defending the rights of workers through political songs, satirical poems and hymns.

This is only a small sample of the many organizations who are working in solidarity with the poor, the uninsured, the immigrant, the LGBT community, the environment, and so many other important causes that are currently in jeopardy. We wholeheartedly endorse the list below, and our website will continually update this list. So visit www.officeoftheamericas.org to find out more.

Note that if you’re reading this list online, you can click on the name of the organization to go directly to the website. If not, you’ll see the website address in parentheses.

We’ll continue updating this list on the OOA website so check back often; you can also subscribe to our weekly newsletter. Just send an email to ooa@igc.org and we’ll add you to our list.
– OurRevolution.com (www.ourrevolution.com) – This site came out of the Bernie Sanders movement, and is a great place to start to find critical issues and actions that you can take on a daily basis. Start your day with a cup of coffee and a peek at ourrevolution.com!

– Organizing for Action (https://www.ofa.us/) – This one started out as barackobama.com; as Obama began as a community organizer, this movement encourages community organization and is committed to training the next group of progressive leaders. Lots of great stuff going on here including downloadable documents you can use in organizing and lots of tangible advise and links.

– Indivisible (https://www.indivisibleguide.com/) – a downloadable guide for resisting the Trump Agenda; and lots of action ideas, lists of events, etc. Indispensable!

- MoveOn.org (www.front.moveon.org ) – create petitions, find out where rallies and house parties are in your area, and how to start your own. Democracy in Action.

- advocating on behalf of, and providing outreach and care to, homeless men and women in Los Angeles – G.O.A.L. Advocacy Foundation (www.goalfoundation.org or visit their Facebook page for more information)

-For homeless children and youth – Covenant House

– For climate justice – 350.org (www.350.org) - started by Bill McKibben, this site has invaluable action plans for protecting our planet

-The Environmental Working Group’s (www.ewg.org) mission is to empower people to live healthier lives in a healthier environment. With breakthrough research and education, they drive consumer choice and civic action

– Protecting our rights – the American Civil Liberties Union (www.aclu.org) - hugely important as evidenced by their quick reaction to the Muslim ban

-To guarantee the Presidency to the candidate with the most popular votes – National Popular Vote ([www.national popular vote.com](http://www.national popular vote.com))

– For campaign finance reform – End Citizens United (endcitizensunited.org)

Victories!

When we say “Don’t Mourn”, we mean it! We are energized and overjoyed at the number of victories that have already taken place.

These are just a few of the many victories that have taken place. This list will just keep growing!

- The ACLU immediately sprang into action challenging Trump's executive order; they were issued a stay and were able to prevent people from being deported.
- 9th Circuit Court of Appeals refuses to reinstate travel ban.
- The VA was able to get a partial hiring freeze.
- The CEO of Uber stepped down from Trump's economic advisory council and set up a defense fund for its drivers affected by the ban.
- Organizing for Action has held over 20,000 online calls and trainings for volunteers.
- Air BnB offered free housing to people affected by the ban.
- Google created a crisis fund to support immigrant rights organizations.
- Starbucks pledged to hire 10,000 refugees worldwide.
- Lyft committed to a one million dollar donation to the ACLU over the next four years.
- Mayors from cities across the country, including Chicago, LA, New York, Oakland, San Francisco, Austin and more vowed to defend their residents and stay sanctuary cities in direct defiance of the President.
- Churches and other houses of worship across the country have committed to becoming sanctuaries.
- Protests, rallies, and organized solidarity have sprung up across the country at airports, state capitals, and town hall meetings.
➢ On February 20, the New Mexico Senate became the 35th state legislative chamber to approve the National Popular Vote bill.

➢ Macy’s and Nordstrom’s stop selling Ivanka Trump’s brand; Macy’s had stopped selling Donald Trump’s menswear last year in protest to his comments about Mexicans. TJ Maxx and Marshall continue to sell Ivanka’s brand but will not promote it.

➢ In March of 2017, a federal court in Hawaii was able to block Trump’s new travel ban just hours before it was set to go into effect!

Inspiration

Don’t Mourn, Organize.
   -  Joe Hill, Labor leader

Do not become bitter or hostile. Be hopeful and optimistic. Change happens one step at a time. Keep picking them up and putting them down.
   -  Rep. John Lewis

Pray for the dead and fight like hell for the living.
   -  Mary Harris Jones (Mother Jones)

Our lives begin to end the day we become silent about things that matter.
   -  Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Some favorite signs from marches and rallies:

- We Shall Overcomb
- Make America Think Again
- IKEA Has Better Cabinets
- Did You Remember to Set Your Clocks Back 60 Years?
- Tweet All People Kindly
- The power of the people is greater than the people in power
- Love is power, Hate is poison

We cannot let the dream of our country die and be dashed and killed. We can do something about it, and it is unacceptable, when you have the power, to do nothing ... We allow our inability to do everything to undermine our determination to do something."
   -  Senator Cory Booker
