Once there was a guy who was fishing on Farlain Lake. And he found a big fish which was as big as his grandpa. He was fishing where the lily pads were way at the end in Farlain Lake. He had a kayak which weighed 60 pounds and it didn't even sink so the fish could fit in. And when the fish went in the kayak it shrunk to 1 pound. How big it was was as big as his kid now.

Chapter 2

And when he got back home he wanted to show his grandpa then throw it back into the water.

The fish was a wallop fish and it stayed small when he took it out of the kayak and showed his grandpa. Then the guy threw it back into Farlain Lake and it got gigantic again. And then his grandma came out and gave him a hot dog.

Chapter 3

He had a fishing derby so he just threw it back in because he didn't want to win a prize. The guy was very happy.
