DECEMBER 23, 2018, THE 4TH SUNDAY OF ADVENT

• WORSHIP AT 8, OR LESSONS & CAROLS AT 9:15 & 11 AM

This Sunday features the story of the visitation of Mary with Elizabeth in Luke 1:39-55. Elizabeth's child (John the Baptist) "leaped in her womb." Mary responded with the poem Magnificat: "My soul magnifies the Lord, my spirit rejoices in God my Savior."

DECEMBER 24, 2018, MONDAY: CHRISTMAS EVE

• 3 PM CHILDREN'S LITURGY • 5 PM FAMILY SERVICE

Our popular 3 & 5 PM services are especially child friendly in content and length. They feature participatory Gospel Tableaus with Eucharist at each service, and a homily by Rev. Jill. Children may come dressed as shepherds, angels, animals (or bring stuffed animals), stars or townsfolk (regular dress). Christmas Carols are sung as the Gospel story progresses. Soloists provide music during communion. Age-appropriate Light-Stix illuminate the singing of Silent Night.

• 7:30 AND 10:30 PM CANDLELIGHT EUCHARIST

The 7:30 and 10:30 PM services are Classic Christmas services with traditional music & candlelight. Fr. John is the preacher. Expanded choir, violin and organ. After Holy Communion at each liturgy, we will light our candles for the congregational singing of Silent Night.
