

ATTENTION VOLUNTEERS! LIFE SKILLS INSTRUCTORS NEEDED

The Dumas Wesley Community Center is recruiting volunteers to teach life skills courses that will equip homeless women and children with the tools, behaviors, and competencies necessary to achieve long-term success and independence. Instructors may earn Continuing Education credits.

We are looking for instructors for the following areas:

- Predatory Lending
- Parenting Classes
- Healthy Boundaries
- Overcoming Trauma
- Job Readiness & Interview Skills
- Arts, Crafts, and Leisure Activities

Sybil Smith Family Village, a transitional housing program of the Dumas Wesley Community Center, provides safe shelter and essential services for homeless women and children in Mobile County.

Join us in making a difference!

Contact Us

Sybil Smith Family Village

251.473.5526

www.dumaswesley.org