

The Best is Yet to Come

September 17, 2017

Women's One-Day Retreat

Sunday 9:00 am to 4:30 pm

Presented by Jacqueline Huse
and her 17 year old daughter, Shelby

Pinehurst Country Club
6255 West Quincy, Denver

Register for one-day retreat by September 8
$39.00 per person includes noon meal on Sunday

BY MAIL – include your name, address, phone, email address. Enclose check payable to RMC WM or credit card – include CC number, security code, zip code. mail to Ginger Bell, 1035 Midland Street, Brighton, CO 80601

BY PHONE (with credit card) Call Ginger at 720-980-9006

Jaclynn Huse is a professor of nursing at Southern Adventist University in Collegedale, TN. As a Christian singer/songwriter she has followed God's calling of speaking for women's retreats and conventions. She is the very proud mother of her co-speaker, Shelby Huse.

Shelby Huse is a 17 year old senior at Georgia Cumberland Academy. She has traveled internationally with her mother and has developed her own passion for ministry and speaking about what God has done in her life. She started speaking to women and teens at the age of 15 and has traveled extensively with her mother to participate in the music ministry as well.

The Best is Yet to Come focuses on hope, a theme in the Bible with many examples of life lessons with the belief that these stories were included so that we could understand the concept of hope and redemption. Each presentation will include several original songs that enhance the meaning of what is presented with each session.