WELCOME

“The Bible is full of beautiful and exciting highs for God and His people. We celebrate many victories and miracles and other amazing stories throughout the pages of Scripture, and they are easy to acknowledge because they’re joyous signs that good has won. But the Bible is not exclusively blue skies & butterflies; there are valleys between the mountains where God’s people literally and metaphorically battle the forces of evil. There are stories of failures, calamities, and destruction that impact the people and the nation in painful ways. In fact, we know that we will deal with sickness, pain, and death until sin and evil are done away with once and for all at the end of time. Grief might be an uncomfortable topic for some to cope with, but it is a vital part of our life experience as we navigate this sin-tainted world, and a chance to bond with God as never before. So this weekend as we wrestle with grief and grace, we hope you’re encouraged through whatever valleys you might face. Welcome to Campion.”
