

Community Action Network Recruiting for Board Members

Now Recruiting: Passionate, Mission-Driven Board Members

Community Action Network is looking for new Board members who are passionate about providing opportunities for education, housing, and mental health. We invite you to bring your skills, voice, and leadership to the CAN, a Washtenaw County nonprofit committed to serving under-resourced neighborhoods through a comprehensive and integrated range of programs, including:

- After-school enrichment and educational summer camps
- Food pantries and nutrition support
- Housing stability and advocacy
- Mental health services
- Art and design programs for youth

What We're Looking For:

We are especially seeking Board members with one or more of the following:

- Ties to the neighborhoods we serve (Arrowwood Hills, Brick, Bryant, Creekside Court, Green Baxter Court, Hikone, and Northside)
- Legal background
- Mental health or social work professional expertise
- Fundraising, major donor cultivation, corporate social responsibility experience
- Foundation or grantmaking relationships or experience
- Connections to corporate partners or foundations
- Policy or government affairs experience, particularly past experience as an elected official, or who closely follows city and county government news
- Youth development or childhood education

Expectations:

- Attend quarterly Board meetings and participate on at least one committee
- Actively support fundraising efforts, including personal contributions of any amount
- Serve as an ambassador for our mission in your networks
- Commit to equity, accountability, and community leadership

We value diverse voices and actively encourage applications from individuals of all backgrounds, including those who reflect the communities we serve. Please share this with potential candidates in your network!

Interested?

Contact Emily Twanmo (etwanmo@canwashtenaw.org) and Derrick Miller (dmiller@canwashtenaw.org) to learn more or submit a brief statement of interest and resume.