

Seeking the Best and the Brightest... It's time for Star-Gazing: Help IFDA Spotlight The Rising Stars of Design 2024!

IFDA's mission is to enhance the professionalism and stature of the design industry worldwide. Our annual event is returning after the pandemic to celebrate the Rising Stars of Design and to support the future by honoring new talent, promoting their businesses, and enveloping them into the IFDA community.

The IFDA Rising Stars committee wants your nominations for the best and the brightest.

Please nominate both Interior Designers and Product Designers to be considered for the 2024 Honorees. Three Interior Designers and one Product Designer will be honored.

Candidates should be:

- In their own business a minimum of one year and a maximum of 6 years.
- In business in the tri-state area.
- Able to attend the awards night to give a short Power point presentation about their work.
- They may not be a division of a larger corporation.
- They may not have won another similar industry award.
- Does not have to be an IFDA member (but we hope you will join us!)

Give us your Nominee's:

- Name
- Company
- Email
- Website
- Phone number
- Any additional place we may see their work.
- Product category if nominating a Product Designer
- And a sentence or two on why you think they stand out.

Deadline for nominations is Feb 29th, 2024.
