

Small Business – Big Impact

During these unprecedented times, the Ohio Valley wants to come together to support local businesses, but in some cases they don't know how. Most businesses have recently been forced into operating with limited hours, have closed or have recently changed their services. More than ever, people of the Ohio Valley need to hear from the businesses they love and support.

WTRF is offering an innovated way to personally reach out! This Community Greetings PSA campaign is an inexpensive, crowd funded way to reach a captive audience. On average TV viewership is up 11% and the WTRF.com is generating millions of page views every week with almost a half a million unique users. This means there are a LOT of people to reach with your message.
