

SEPTEMBER IS HUNGER ACTION MONTH

September is the National Hunger Action Month, and Mayor Franco and the Village Board of Trustees have declared Thursday, September 12, 2019 as the 6th Annual GO ORANGE DAY in Bloomington to help raise Hunger Awareness and to encourage Action to combat hunger in Bloomington.

Non-perishable food and personal care items will be accepted during the month of September at the following Bloomington Donation Drop-Off Locations.

Bloomington Public Library - 101 Fairfield Way

Bloomington Fire Protection District No. 1 – 179 S. Bloomington Rd.

Bloomington Park District JRC – 172 S. Circle Ave

Bloomington Township Food Pantry– 123 Rosedale Ave. (Year round)

Bloomington Village Hall – 201 S. Bloomington Rd.

Participating Bloomington Schools will also be collecting donations from students and staff in September.

In addition to the Food Drive, the community is encouraged to:

- ✚ Wear Orange to Work or School on GO ORANGE DAY. Share your photos at #ILHungerAction;
- ✚ Donate Food and Supplies to local food pantries year round;
- ✚ Spark a conversation about hunger with friends, family, coworkers, and on social media;
- ✚ Volunteer your time working at a local food pantry, collecting and/or delivering food to those in need;
- View more ideas at www.SolveHungerToday.org or donate online, (every $1 provides $8 worth of food).

GO ORANGE
FOR NO KID HUNGRY

