

OUR PEOPLE DRIVE INNOVATION

LEAN SUBCONTRACTING, CRAFTSMANSHIP, SAFETY & USE OF TECHNOLOGY ATTRIBUTES TO MULTIPLE AWARD WINS

Over the last few months, Shapiro & Duncan received 5 project awards for quality, craftsmanship, BIM, Lean subcontracting approach and safety. The United States Holocaust Memorial Museum and Carnegie Institute of Science projects were awarded an ABC Excellence in Construction Award by the ABC Chesapeake Shores Chapter on September 20th in Hanover, Maryland. This awards competition serves to raise the level of construction standards throughout the industry by recognizing the workmanship of those who contribute and by showcasing the results of their dedication.

In addition, ABC Metro Washington and Chesapeake Shores chapters recognized Shapiro & Duncan for the Silver STEP award. The program components includes management commitment to safety, employee participation, use of personal protective equipment, and record keeping.

During the 18th Annual Washington Contractor Awards Ceremony at the Spy Museum in Washington, DC on Tuesday, October 9th, the Associated General Contractors of DC Metro (AGC) awarded our Virtual Design Coordination department with “Best Building Information Modeling” on the Academies of Loudoun Project. Our field fabrication and project management teams were awarded for their lean subcontracting approach during the modular construction at the American Geophysical Union.

Contractor Awards Ceremony at the Spy Museum in

The construction and execution of the Academies of Loudoun and the American Geophysical Union projects demonstrate Shapiro & Duncan’s dedication to ingenuity and hard work.