

What you can do:

Become informed.

Websites:

- Refugee Resettlement Watch
- Understanding the Threat
- Center for the Study of Political Islam, which has some great inexpensive books.
- Truth In Love Project
- Jihad Watch (see Islam 101)

Books: There are many, including:

“The Sword of the Prophet”, Serge Trikovic; “The Closed Circle”, David Pryce Jones; “The Grand Jihad”, Andrew McCarthy; “Religion of Peace”, Robert Spencer; “America Alone”, Mark Steyn.

Tell others and form a small group.

Inform friends, family and fellow church members about Islam, and form a group of people that can get together periodically and discuss what you are reading and learning. Work and learn together.

Take action.

Start going to political, government and church meetings with your group and demand accountability. Stress the incompatibility of Muslim Law (Sharia) with our civilization. If Catholic Charities, Lutheran Social Services and other VOLAGs want to bring Muslims here, they should use their own money. No federal grants, no welfare, and no business tax credits for hiring “refugees”. If the Christian VOLAGs want to bring Muslims here, they should bring them to faith in Christ and protect them from the persecution they will inevitably get from Muslims. What is being done currently is done for money only, and won’t work. We need to put a stop to that.

It is human nature to avoid looking at a problem when there is no apparent solution. It is also human nature to deny the existence of a problem when trusted entities, such as the news media, government officials and church leaders assure people that the problem doesn't exist. When a person encounters contradictory evidence, it produces stress. When you study the history, doctrines and current practices of Islam, you will feel conflicted between what you learn and observe for yourself, and what is publicly promoted by our news media, politicians, and many church leaders. The first thing you can do to resolve the problem is understanding the problem by educating yourself with Truth.
