

Interactive E-Learning Module

Operationalizing the Right to Development in Implementing the Sustainable Development Goals

Round Fifteen

16 July - 12 August 2025

Round Sixteen

29 October - 25 November 2025

INSTRUCTOR

Dr. Mihir Kanade

Head of the Department of International Law and Director of the Human Rights Centre, University for Peace, Costa Rica; Member, UN Human Rights Council's Expert Mechanism on the Right to Development.

INSTRUCTOR

Dr. Obijiofor Aginam

Director, UNESCO's Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Education for Peace and Sustainable Development, New Delhi, India.

The OHCHR, UPEACE, and the UNESCO Mahatma Gandhi Institute of Education for Peace and Sustainable Development are jointly offering the 15th and 16th editions of the free four-week interactive and instructor-led e-learning module to train stakeholders on the normative, theoretical and practical importance of and mechanisms for operationalizing the Right to Development in the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

Staff members of governmental, intergovernmental, and non-governmental organizations, human rights practitioners and defenders, development practitioners, academics, students, and others engaged in realizing of the SDGs

Application Deadline: 9 July 2025

SCAN ME

This course is offered free of charge.

Scan for more information