

Interactive E-Learning Module

Mainstreaming the Right to Development in Voluntary National Review Reporting for Realizing the SDGs

Round Five

27-28 August
2025

Round Six

26-27 November
2025

Dr. Mihir Kanade

Head of the Department of International Law and Director of the Human Rights Centre, University for Peace, Costa Rica; Member, UN Human Rights Council's Expert Mechanism on the Right to Development.

INSTRUCTOR

The Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights (OHCHR) and the University for Peace are jointly offering an online workshop comprising two half-day sessions (3 hours each) to train stakeholders on mainstreaming the right to development in Voluntary National Review (VNR) reporting for realizing the Sustainable Development Goals.

WHO SHOULD APPLY?

The workshop is intended for staff members of governmental, intergovernmental, and nongovernmental organizations, development practitioners, human rights practitioners and defenders, academics, students, and others engaged in the preparation, elaboration or review of VNRs.

Application Deadline: 20 August 2025

Scan for more information

University
for Peace

