BRUNCH WITH JANE FONDA

At the YWCA we have been working to transform communities and build stronger futures for women and girls for more than 160 years. Today, we continue to promote positive change in communities across the Capital Region while advocating for policies at the local, state and federal level. The YWCA strategically combines programming and advocacy to generate generational change for women, girls and communities of color in Baton Rouge and collectively across the United States.

We have grown into a movement throughout the years with programs including Early Head Start services for infants and toddlers, providing permanent housing for domestic violence survivors, and offering STD and pregnancy prevention courses for teen girls. We also raise money for our Community Bail Fund that assists non-violent, unconvicted women with the ability to continue their lives and prevent the loss of their jobs, housing and children before they have been convicted of any wrong-doing.

At the YWCA, we dare to be powerful every day of the year - for the hundreds of women, girls and families we currently serve and for future generations. As we prepare to gather at our Annual Brunch in March and commemorate another year of service, we know that we cannot do this work alone. Partners like you are essential to continuing our critical work and growing our movement. Your support helps to make it possible for us to keep working, organizing and creating change that supports our bold mission: To Eliminate Racism, Empower Women, Stand Up for Social Justice, Help Families, and Strengthen Communities.

Dorothy Height once said, "This is the time to be connected. We can accomplish more together than any of us can do alone." We believe that our united voice and stance will continue to shift the paradigm of our city for the better.

I look forward to working with you as we continue to come together to change our city, our state and our country through the YWCA's mission of empowering women and eliminating racism.

Thank you, my friends,

Dianna Payton
