Building Everyday Leadership in All Teens - 2nd Edition (2015)

Author: Miriam G MacGregor

Every teen can be a leader. That's because leadership is not just about taking the lead in big ways, but in everyday small things too. The 21 sessions in this youth leadership curriculum guides teens to explore ethical decision-making, team-building, what it means to be a leader, how to work with others, risk-taking, communication, creative thinking, and more. The revised and updated second edition includes the Everyday Leadership Skills & Attitudes (ELSA) inventory, a leadership management tool, as well as reproducible handouts, evaluation tools, and exams.

Have You Filled a Bucket Today? - 10th Anniversary Edition (2016)

Author: Carol McCloud

This heartwarming book encourages positive behaviour by using the concept of an invisible bucket to show children how easy and rewarding it is to express kindness, appreciation and love by "filling buckets." Updated and revised, this 10th anniversary edition will help readers better understand that "bucket dipping" is a negative behaviour, not a permanent label. It also explains that it's possible to fill or dip into our own buckets.

Maria's Story

This DVD presents two compelling stories rooted in intentional asset-building actions. Told by Flora Sánchez the stories describe two encounters she had with a young woman named Maria across a 14-year span and illustrate how her simple act of engagement transformed both their lives. This video is a very useful tool for illustrating how adults can engage youth with intentional and deliberate actions in very simple ways. The DVD also contains a series of discussion questions for individual or group reflection, which encourage viewers to think about how they can reach out to young people in their own lives.
