OTHER EVENTS FROM MARCH

On March 6th, Delta Sigma Pi hosted a personal Branding event with speaker Lydia Waybright, the campus recruiter for North Western Mutual. She talked about how using your network and making branding yourself for your future is important and taught us tips and tricks to use in the field.

Also, on March 8th, Marshall hosted a MarshallU TEDx: Beyond Boarders event, which two of our brothers were a part of. Jamison Lewis was a volunteer for the event, helping with the setup and running of the production. And brother Glen Midkiff was a speaker at the event with his story “flipping the script,” talking about his health journey and losing 200 pounds.  We are proud of both of these brothers for everything they have accomplished over the years. Way to go, Jamison and Glen!
