

HISTORY AND CULTURE OF THROUGH ART
DONATE TO A NEIGHBOR'S MURAL
PROJECT

May 23, 2017: Tucson Arts Brigade artist and UA Fine Arts student, Akasia Oberly, presents her preliminary mural concept to the Jefferson Park Neighborhood. Images reflect the history of the Tohono O'odham, Baboquivari Peak home to Itoili, and water. Neighbors gave input. The proposed mural will be on a private wall facing Grant Road at Santa Rita. The owner has asked that the images reflect the themes proposed in our "Heritage Park and Health Trail" grant proposal. This mural will be funded entirely by private donations. If you wish to support this project send in your donation on the form below.
