

Hunterdon County Ballot Counting Update; Nov 12th

A record 81,910 ballots cast by Hunterdon County voters have been counted so far by the County Board of Elections, representing an 82.75% voting turnout, according to unofficial results posted by the Hunterdon County Clerk, as of November 12th.

More ballots are still being processed. County Clerk Mary Melfi will certify the election returns, as required by law, on November 20, 2020.

Freeholder Board Director Shaun C. Van Doren, a Republican, remains the highest vote getter of all candidates for all offices in the County with 45,685 votes received versus 31,980 for Democratic Freeholder candidate Patrick Heller.

In a Congressional race closely watched in the state and across the nation, State Senator Tom Kean leads incumbent Congressman Tom Malinowski by a vote of 44,639 to 35,537 in Hunterdon County. Congressman Malinowski, however, continues lead across the multi county 7th Congressional district by about 8000 votes, with nearly 50,000 still to be counted in other counties.

Click here for the latest Hunterdon County ballot count.