

2021 Hunterdon County 4H Fair Is Back Health And Public Safety Plan Approved

Hunterdon County's 4-H Fair is back and ready to go, having met all public health planning requirements, and having been approved for County Park use by the Hunterdon County Board of Commissioners, at its July 6th Board meeting.

The 4H Fair Committee advised the Board of Commissioners of their determination that the event should go forward this year, after being postponed due to the pandemic in 2020. The Fair is scheduled for August 24 – 29, at the South County Park in East Amwell.

Both the County's Departments of Health and Public Safety reviewed and agreed to comply with the Guidelines but did not generate them.

Hunterdon Board of Commissioners Director Susan J. Soloway stated, "The 4H Fair is an important celebration of Hunterdon County's agricultural heritage, it is a valued tourism event, and fun for all those who attend. I congratulate the 4H Fair Committee on developing a health and public safety plan that will ensure fairgoers can enjoy a sense of normalcy and return to what makes summer in Hunterdon County memorable."

Hunterdon County Parks Division Head Dan Bush reported to the Commissioners, "Hunterdon County and the 4-H & Agricultural Fair Committee are pleased to bring 4-H, fun, fair food, entertainment, rides, and livestock shows once again to South County Park and The Roger K. Everitt Fairgrounds in Hunterdon County. The 4-H and Agricultural fair has something to offer for everyone, you should come out and enjoy everything Hunterdon County Parks has to offer."

The 4H Fair will feature the Tractor Pull event, musical acts, dog events, 4-H Club displays, needlework exhibits, photography contests, livestock exhibits, food vendors and rides for families to enjoy. For more information on events, click here.

Commissioner Matt Holt, Planning and Land Use liaison, said, "Hunterdon County is an Ag county and the 4H Fair embodies the county's agricultural roots. The Board welcomes back the Fair and encourages residents and visitors to come back, safely."

The 2021 Hunterdon County 4-H & Agricultural Fair will take place Wednesday to Saturday August 25-28 from 10am to 10 pm and Sunday August 29 from 10am-5pm. A Fireworks display will be held on Friday, August 27 in the evening between 9-9:30 pm.
